A FIGHT WITH AXES.

Two Wood Choppers Settle a Dispute in a Bloody Combat--Criminal News.

DEADWOOD, S. D., Feb. 17.—News has just reached this city of a fight with axes between Danes employed chopping wood on Elk Creek, sixteen miles from this city. The two men, between whom there has been bad blood for some time, met Sunday afternoon. The quarrel was quickly renewed and both grabbed axes. Max Selback swung his around quickly, letting the keen edge of his weapon fall on the side of Charles Smith's face. The man's head was cut wide open. He fell and Selback rained three or four blows on his prostrate form, breaking his back and cutting terribly gashes in his side and hips. Despite his frightful wounds Smith is still alive, but he will certainly die. Selback has been arrested.

WHEATFIELD, Ind., Feb. 17.—At Julian, a station on the Chicago and Indianapolis coal railway near here, Sunday night John W. Ullery, exsheriff of Newton county, fired five bullets into the body of his brother-in-law, W. Smoot. Both men are reticent as to the origin of the trouble. Smoot probably will die.

PEORIA, Ill., Feb. 17.—John Spellman reached home last night and had a quarrel with his father, who ordered his arrest. While absent searching for the sheriff, young Spellman escaped and is now at liberty. Officers expect to capture him this morning.

WEST SUPERIOR, Wis., Feb. 17.—Alderman A. B. Baxter was arrested yesterday on a warrant charging him with the embezzlement of $2,500. Up to within a short time Mr. Baxter has been manager in this city of the Edwards-McCulloch lumber company, of Stillwater, Minn., who run a branch establishment in this city. At the same time Gustave Paradis, of the same firm, was arrested and both men taken before Judge Steele, who bound them over in the sum of $3,000 each. Bonds were furnished by both men. Baxter has been prominent in local political affairs.

HUNTINGTON, Ind., Feb. 17.—Judge Dailey yesterday overruled the motion for a new trial in the case against Charley Ashley, sentenced to four years for assaulting Judge James B. Kenner and demanding his money on Thanksgiving eve. He will be taken to prison at once.

QUAY EXONERATED.

A Prominent Democrat Comes to His Rescue.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 17.—Samuel Gustine Thompson, president of the Young Men's Democratic association, of Philadelphia, who presided at the Pattison meeting in the Academy of Music in the last campaign, said: "I was counsel for the woman in question. To my knowledge—and I am acquainted with all the facts in this case—Senator Quay never defrauded or attempted to defraud any one of a single penny. Though I am a democrat in politics I made up my mind to make this statment public during the campaign if Senator Quay had seen fit to deny the false allegation and I would have done so if he had sought to vindicate himself."

A Big Libel Suit.

ST. PAUL, Feb. 17.—Senator Ignatus Donnelly yesterday afternoon, through Attorney W. W. Erwin, instituted two suits for libel in $100,000 each against the St. Paul Pioneer Press and ex-Congressman William S. King. These suits grow out of a publication in the Pioneer Press yesterday morning of a column article from Mr. King in which, it is claimed, Mr. Donnelly is repeatedly charged with receiving from $1,000 to $5,000 for his vote and influence at various times in the last twenty years.

WILL CONTINUE BUSINESS.

The American Loan and Trust Company Settles its Trouble.

NEW YORK, Feb. 17.—The Sun says: "A crisis came in the affairs of the American Loan and Trust Co. yesterday. Examiner Cahill had been at work on the books for four days and yesterday he believed that the situation warranted a consultation with Superintendent Preston of the banking department. It turned out that since the publication of the trouble there has been paid out over the counters of the bank $1,200,000, and if this should continue there would be no alternative but to close its doors. Mr. Cahill's examination showed that there had been an impairment of the capital by $364,000, the amount advanced to the Decatur, Chesapeake and New Orleans railroad company. It was said that there were other trifling impairments which would bring the amount up to $400,000. Mr. Preston summoned the executive committee of the company and notified that they must make up the difference before this morning or he would stop business. From that time on there was a grand bustle to get the money, which lasted far into the night. George A. Evans, the vice-president, who was responsible for the loans to the Railroad company, made efforts to help his company out of their trouble. The directors besieged their friends for aid. Some called on Mr. Sage last night and he promised to help them out conditionally. Other pledges were secured, the most of them coming, it was said, from John S. Blair, a director. Granville P. Hawes, counsel for the company, announced just before midnight that enough money had been raised to warrant the opening of the doors this morning. Mr. Hawes added that if the pledges were carried out the company would have no difficulty in going on.

WILL FIGHT TO-NIGHT.

Dan Needham and Tom Ryan Will Meet Each Other in the Ring at Minneapolis.

MINNEAPOLIS, Feb. 17.—Patrons of pugilistic events from Illinois, Michigan, Wisconsin and Indiana to a total of over two hundred, came in on this morning's trains from Chicago and struggled through a blinding snow storm to the hotels that are the headquarters of the respective state contingents. On the same trains there were no small number of substantial looking business men and commercial travelers, whom mysterious and pressing business had called to the flourishing city, and who, although at home they would not permit themselves to grace a glove contest, were, nevertheless, soon after their arrival, hustling the secretary of the Twin City Athletic club for the tickets necessary to enable them to witness to-night's encounter between Dannie Needham, late of California, and Tommy Ryan, now of Chicago and formerly of Michigan. Everything in the amphitheatre of the club is in readiness for the mill. The tiers of seats rising from the ring reach almost to the ceiling and will furnish accommodations for $1,500 spectators, and about a third more of that number can be provided with standing room. Ryan, accompanied by Billy Myers, of Streator, trudged five miles and back through the snow this morning. He is in the very pink of condition and is certain to make a gallant fight. Needham is also in excellent form, but there are conflicting rumors regarding the condition of his hands and as a result the betting, which all along has been 100 to 80 in his favor, veered around in some of the resorts at noon to even money. Ryan has hosts of friends and they are well provided with funds to back their prediction. Ryan will make a cautious fight, for he has never yet met a foeman of Needham's standing and the battle therefore promises to be a long one, although some small bets were made this morning that twenty rounds would settle the affair one way or the other. Physically the ex-California lad is all that could be demanded, but unless his hands are in better shape than is reported the blows that he can deliver will not be heavy enough to stop his opponent and the latter, by prolonging the contest, will stand a good chance of besting him. Needham's backers say, however, that they have no fears regarding the outcome and that however terrible a punisher Ryan may be he will get back all that he gives with compound interest. Joe Mannix, a well-known member of the local newspaper fraternity, will be the referee. Betting lagged somewhat at noon, but will be decidedly brisk this afternoon and at the ring side. The men will weight in at 9 o'clock.

THE ANDERSON MYSTERY.

Still Searching for the Missing New Providence Man.

NEW ALBANY, Feb. 17.—The grave discovered in the woods near New Providence last Saturday and supposed to contain the remains of Charles Anderson, was opened yesterday, and it contained nothing, though there was evidence that it at one time held the remains of some person. There was another sensational disclosure in the mysterious case made to-day by a sister-in-law of Gillespie, the accused murderer, and daughter of his father-in-law, Mike Money. Miss Money states that Anderson was murdered by Gillespie and buried in the grave discovered Saturday; that shortly after the murder, Gillespie, fearing that the grave would be found and the remains exhumed, removed the body, and taking it to a remote spot among the hills, built a fire and reduced it to ashes. Her statement was made to Albert Lee and wife, who reside in the neighborhood, and this afternoon the startling information was imparted to a Journal correspondent by Lee.

THE SPANIARDS DEFEATED.

They Attack Natives of the Caroline Islands and Get Whipped.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 17.—A private letter from the Caroline Islands gives an account of further fighting between the natives and Spaniards, in which the latter were worsted. Last November the Spanish government sent an expedition, consisting of three gunboats and one transport, against the village of Metal Lamar. The sailors and troops landed, and after the loss of sixty men, made the natives retreat. The Spaniards were reinforced and six days later attacked the natives. The latter were behind a barricade and were armed with muskets and two small cannon. The Spaniards were badly repulsed, with a loss of 120 men. It is expected that a general uprising of natives will take place, and the governor has dispatched ships to Manilla for troops.

A Sugar Refinery Sold.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Feb. 17.—The stockholders of the St. Louis Sugar Refining company have been notified of a meeting to be held on Thursday, February 26th, to vote upon a proposition to sell, convey and deliver the property and dissolve the corporation. Mr. R. J. Lockland, vice-president of the company, says: "The property has already been sold and this meeting is to ratify the sale, but as the company's stock is nearly all held by the directors, and as the directors made the sale, the stockholders' meeting will be a mere formality." It is thought the St. Louis refinery will resume business when the present duty on raw sugar is taken off, next April. The refinery is one of the largest in the country and has been shut down more than two years. Several hundred hands are employed when it is in full operation. It is a member of the American Sugar Refining company.

PORTER'S FUNERAL.

The Brave Naval Commander Laid to His Final Rest in Arlington Cemetery.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—The funeral ceremonies over the remains of Admiral Porter, the highest officer in the American navy at the time of his death, took place this afternoon from his residence in this city.

The event was very imposing, the greatest honors known to naval regulations being paid to the dead hero. The officers of the government, including the President, members of the cabinet, senators and representatives, justices of supreme court, army officers of every rank, vice admirals and numberless naval officers, members of diplomatic corps and men distinguished in letters and science, were present.

It was nearly 3 o'clock when the funeral cortege moved to Arlington, where the remains were interred with the highest naval honors. The funeral procession was composed of more than 5,000 troops, consisting of marines, militia, United States regulars, artillery and cavalry, in charge of Rear Admiral Kimberly.

The pall-bearers were: Vice President Morton, Senator Manderson, Senator McPherson, Senator Hawley, Governor Pattison, Major General Schofield, Rear Admiral Rodgers, Rear Admiral Howell, Rear Admiral Crosby, Rear Admiral Stevens, Rear Admiral Almy, Rear Admiral Woorden, Rear Admiral Jouette, Rear Admiral Quenesne, General T. Johnston, and Representative D. Bonttelle.

The body bearers were eight sailors from the crew of the United States receiving ship Dale, now at the navy yard here. The dead admiral was dressed in the full uniform of his rank, the G. A. R. badge, the decoration of Sons of American Revolution, and the badge of Porter post, of Massachusetts, being upon his breast.

The casket was covered with royal purple velvet, with silver handles and ornaments. Upon a silver tablet on the lid was the inscription, "David D. Porter, admiral United States navy. Born June 18, 1813; died February 13, 1891."

IN THE COURTS.

Business Done Before the Justices and Judges To-day.

David Carr, a stranger who was on his way west, was in the city last night. He was attempting at several places to sell a revolver which he carried, but was unsuccessful in so doing. At one place he frightened a boy by pointing the revolver, which was loaded, at him. Carr was arrested by Officer Lee. At police court this morning he was arraigned on the charge of carrying concealed weapons and fined $5 and costs. He was sent to jail for eleven days.

The appeal case from Mayor Harding's court of Jerry Flood, who was fined for drunkenness, was up in the circuit court to-day.

The case for malicious trespass against Martin Holey was finished in the circuit court and went to the jury at noon.

Justice Tancey is making out a transcript of the Notestine case, which has been appealed to court.

Ph. Blade has brought suit against Charles Brahm, before Justice France, on an account for $25. The case is set for trial on Friday at 10 o'clock. The case of B. D. Angell for possession of premises against Narcesus Bacher, has been set for trial before Justice France on the 23rd at 9 a. m.

'Squire France fined Lawrence Hoffman $10 and costs for selling liquor on Sunday; Frank Higby $20 and costs for disobeying subpœna, and fined George Brossard $1 and costs for provoking Officer John Trammel.

Andrew J. Shutt et al. sue Abraham Taussing et al. to quit title to real estate. Morris & Barrett and W. L. Penfield are attorneys.

The case of Robert McKee vs. Timothy T. Kennerk et al., is appealed to the circuit court from Esquire Wilkinson.

Judge Dawson listened to arguments in the Randall-Reinewald injunction case in the circuit court yesterday. He adjourned the superior court later and went to Decatur to hold a brief session for Judge Heller.

The verdict in the Rodehouse murder case at Van Wert does not give satisfaction among the citizens there. The Van Wert Bulletin says in regard to it: "It was generally conceded that he was guilty of murder or he was not guilty. The defense made its fight on the ground of self-defense and it is considered a legal impossibility on such grounds to find a verdict of assault and battery. A verdict of acquittal would have borne with it some dignity and would even have given better satisfaction to the prosecution and to the friends of the dead engineer. As it is the verdict is something of a farce, a verdict such as is found in a justice court when a drunken fight has taken place and one man receives a black eye at the hands of another. The penalty under the verdict is from $1 to $200 while the costs of the case which amount to $3,000 or $4,000 will in the end be borne by the county. The verdict is no doubt the result of a compromise."

GENERAL SHERMAN.

The Old Soldiers of This City Do Honor to the Dead Hero.

Last evening at G. A. R. hall a large number of the veterans of the late war assembled to do honor to the memory of the late Gen. Wm. T. Sherman. A number of the old soldiers present marched with the dead hero on one of the most famous marches in the history of modern war. General Sherman to many was dear and intimate, to others a leader who commanded respect and admiration, personally and as an eminent commander. Comrade James E. Graham called the meeting to order and Comrade Milton M. Thompson was elected chairman and George E. Adams secretary.

On motion of Comrade Dickman, a committee of five comrades was appointed on resolutions. The committee consisted of Comrades George D. Adams, J. B. White, Phil Dickinson, E. B. Smith, H. W. Dickman. The preamble and resolutions drawn up were eulogistic of the late hero's military career. The last clause read:

Be it Resolved, The soldiers of this city be requested to assemble at some suitable place on the day and hour of the funeral and hold suitable memorial services, at which time and place the clergy of our city churches be invited to participate, and that all comrades wear their memorial badges or suitable mourning upon the occasion.

On motion of Comrade Dickinson, a committee on arrangements was appointed consisting of eight old soldiers and three sons of veterans. Also, a request was made that the president of the Business Men's exchange appoint a committee of five to act in conjuction. The following comrades were appointed: M. M. Thompson, James E. Graham, Phil Dickinson, George D. Adams, A. M. Darroch, J. B. White, E. B. Smith, A. Daugherty. Sons of veterans—T. W. Blair, H. D. Miller and H. F. Geller. The committee will meet at the Business Men's exchange rooms Wednesday night at 7:30.

After remarks by comrades Graham, Dickinson, White, Alderman and others on the life and character of General Sherman, it was decided that should the funeral of General Sherman occur on Saturday, the 21st instant, that the memorial services be held on that afternoon and that the business houses be asked to close during the hour of service.

OUR RESPONSIBILITY

For What We Believe Concerning God's Eternal Truths.

The theme discussed by Dr. Wells, the evangelist, at the First Presbyterian church last evening was, "Are we responsible to God for what we believe?" The doctor took Webster's definition of believe—credit given to the testimony of others. He said the will has the power to receive or accept this testimony and in so far as we allow or prevent this testimony concerning God's eternal truths entering the mind are we responsible for our belief. The avenues through which this testimony enters the mind are: reason, consciousness, memory and the senses. If men shut these up and refuse to examine God's truths they will be held responsible, and this is what men do with the testimony concerning their soul's eternal welfare. The infidel, the skeptic, the unbeliever, shut their eyes and close their ears to these things. They refuse to examine the evidence. In many instances the infidel and unbeliever do not read the Bible. They have not examined the evidence upon which Christianity rests and the assaults made by them are those which have been exploded years ago by Christian thinkers. If men will examine the Bible they will be convinced of its truths and be led to believe. God has endowed us with the faculties for determining the questions for ourselves and sent His Holy Spirit to aid us and if we refuse to make use of them we are held responsible for believing false doctrines and the logical sequence is that we are also held responsible for the results of this unbelief on our lives. To night Dr. Wells will preach upon the theme, "The Smitten Rock."

James A. Gavin, janitor-in-chief of the public schools, to-day received a memorial card announcing the death of his aunt, Janet Gavin, which occurred at Millhall, Eaglesham, Scotland, on January 30, 1891. The deceased was eighty-three years old, and was a sister of Mr. Gavin's father, and one of two sisters and two brothers, who lived unmarried in the family homestead at the above place. The broken chain caused by the death of this estimable lady leaves the other three at ages ranging above seventy-five years. The memorial is beautifully embellished in mourning and bears a touching poem on the leaflet, the issuing of which is a common custom in Scotland.

DEMAND AN ANSWER.

A Railroad Committee Sent to Pittsburg to Confer With Officials in Regard to Increased Wages.

Last night No. 8 on the Fort Wayne road carried a delegation of railroad men out of the city, whose destination was Pittsburg, Pa. The party consisted of one or more representatives from the following organizations: Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen, Order of Railroad Conductors, Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen and the Switchmen's Mutual Benefit association, and they were all employes of the Pennsylvania company. They were men with determination written upon every line of their faces, whose object was to call upon General Manager Wood, and in person ask for a definite answer in relation to the demands made for higher pay by the engineers, firemen, conductors, trainmen and switchmen. They will, it is understood, insist upon an answer and telegraph here at once the result of their mission. A special meeting of the members of the organizations mentioned will be held this evening to take proper action over the answer to be given by Manager Wood. In the event of the officials refusing to grant the demands of the men or the failure to compromise the matter, a strike may result.

Ex-Auditor M. E. Argo and W. S. Buck have just returned from New York city where they were summoned to the general offices of the Equitable Life Insurance company. After a conference the above gentlemen were appointed general agents of the company for northern Indiana, with headquarters at Fort Wayne. Mr. Argo has for some time past been having the charge of the local business of the company, which agency was held by Mr. Buck previous to his appointment at Indianapolis, where he also represented the Equitable. The firm will be known as Argo & Buck. Mr. Argo will attend to the business and Mr. Buck will do the outside work. His jurisdiction covers all the territory north of Jay county.

FREE GRAVEL ROADS.

A Meeting to be Held in the Court House To-Night.

A meeting will be held at the circuit court room this evening to discuss the free gravel road question. The bill which has been prepared by Mr. T. E. Ellison will be considered. Representative farmers living on all the gravel roads running out of the city will be present at the meeting, and changes that may be advisable will be made before the bill is submitted to the legislature for enactment. The matter is an important one and there should be a general attendance on the part of business men and all other citizens.

NOT SO SERIOUS.

There is no Cause for Immediate Alarm in the Bishop's Condition.

Prayers of the congregation were asked in the Cathedral last Sunday for the bishop's recovery. The prelate contracted a cold some ten days ago, which has kept him to his room. Whilst the present inclemency of the weather has a depressing effect upon him and renders his breathing somewhat heavy, there was no occasion for the item so strongly put in a morning paper. Neither the bishop's physicians nor his household have occasion to be so unnecessarily alarmed as the item this morning would indicate.

A Train Burned.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Feb. 17.—About midnight last night near Churchville, on the New York Central railroad, a train consisting of thirty cars, mostly oil tanks, broke in two on a down grade. In coming together, five of the cars were overturned, spilling the oil about. It was ignited from the engine, and before assistance could be had, the entire train was consumed. Engineer Chapman, of Dewitt, was badly burned.

THE Business Men's Exchange are taking hold of the freeing of the toll roads of the county in earnest.

THE legislature has set apart Thursday evening for a hearing on the pending municipal suffrage bill. Addresses will be made by Helen M. Gougar and Mary E. Haggart in the hall of the house of representatives. The ladies will no doubt make strong inroads upon the judgments of our two bachelor legislators, Messrs. Oppenheim and Hench.

ALLEN W. THURMAN, son of the "Old Roman," is the Napoleon of base ball. His latest honor is his appointment to be chairman of the National board of control. Thurman has some very new ideas of base ball which he will introduce. The other members of the board are John I. Rogers and Mr. Krauthof, of the Western league. These gentlemen control the base ball world this season.

MR. MORGAN'S bill to clear the titles to two sections of Indian lands in Allen county of tax incumbrances against them, was passed in the Indiana senate yesterday, under a suspension of the rules, without objection. Taxes on these lands have accumulated for years and have not been paid because the Indians claimed they were exempt from taxation. The United States supreme court has recently decided that the Indians are right in their position, and that their lands are not taxable, and Mr. Morgan's bill simply wipes out the claim against the property in accordance with this decision.

IN Jeff Davis' memoirs the following letter from a young woman is printed: "Dear Mr. President: I want you to let Jeems C. of company oneth, Fifth South Carolina regiment, come home and get married. Jeems is willin', I is willin', his mammy says she is willin', but Jeems' captain he an't willin'. Now then we are all willin' 'ceptin' Jeems's captain, I think you might let up and let Jeems come. I'll make him go straight back when he done got married and fight just as hard as ever." Mr. Davis wrote on the letter: "Let Jeems go." Jeems went home, married the affectionate correspondent of Mr. Davis, returned to his regiment, and did fight as well as ever.

WITH the death of Sherman the title of general of the army completely disappears from our military system. It has been held by three men only. It was created in 1866 by act of congress and conferred upon Grant. Sherman then succeeded Grant as lieutenant general, and when the latter took his seat as president in March, 1869, the former became general of the army. In 1884 Sherman was put on the retired list with the title which he held to the time of his death. In the active service the office, by provision of law, became vacant and the title extinct, Sheridan being commander of the army with the rank of lieutenant general. In 1888, just before Sheridan's death, the rank of lieutenant general was abolished and that of general revived, with the understanding that Sheridan should be made general and the express provision that the title should continue only during his life. Since that time the head of the army has been a major general.

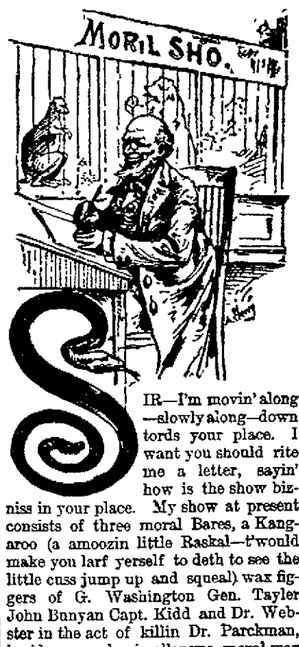
ONE OF WARD'S BUSINESS LETTERS.

To the Editor of the ——:



SIR—I'm movin' along—slowly along—down tords your place. I want you should rite me a letter, sayin' how is the show biznis in your place. My show at present consists of three moral Bares, a Kangaroo (a amoozin little Raskal—t'would make you larf yerself to deth to see the little cuss jump up and squeal) wax figgers of G. Washington Gen. Tayler John Bunyan Capt. Kidd and Dr. Webster in the act of killin Dr. Parckman, besides several miscellanyus moral wax statoots of celebrated pirats & murderers, &c., ekalled by a few & exceld by none. Now Mr. Editor, scratch orf a few lines sayin how is the show bizniss down to your place. I shall hav my handbills dun at your offiss. Depend upon it. I want you should git my handbills up in flamin stile.

Also git up a tremenjus excitement in yr. paper 'bowt my onparaleled Show. We must fetch the public sumhow. We must wurk on their feelins. Cum the moral on 'em strong. If it's a temperance community tell 'em I sined the pledge fifteen minits arter Ise born, but on the contery ef your peple take their tods say Mister Ward is as Jenial a feller as we ever met, full of conwiviality, & the life and soul of the Soshul Bored. Take, don't you? If you say anythin abowt my show say my snaix is as harmliss as the new born Babe. What a interestin study it is to see a zewological animil like a snaik under perfeck subjeckshun! My kangaroo is the most larfable little cuss I ever saw. All for 15 cents. I am anxyus to skewer your inflocunce. I repeet in regard to them hanbills that I shall git 'em struck orf up to your printin office. My perlitercal sentiments agree with yourn exackly. I know they do, becawz I never saw a man whoos didn't. Respectively yures,

A. WARD.

P. S.—You scratch my back & Ile scratch your back.

ON "FORTS."

Every man has got a Fort. It's sum men's fort to do one thing, and some other men's fort to do another, while there is numeris shiftliss critters goin round loose whose fort is not to do nothin.

Shakspeer rote good plase, but he wouldn't hav succeeded as a Washington correspondent of a New York daily paper. He lackt the rekesit fancy and imagginashun.

That's so!

Old George Washington's Fort was not to hev eny public man of the present day resemble him to eny alarmin extent. Whare bowts can George's ekal be found? I ask, & boldly anser no whares, or eny whare else.

Old man Townsin's Fort was to maik Saasyperiller. "Goy to the world! another life saived!" (Cotashun from Townsin's advertisemunt.)

Cyrus Field's Fort is to lay a sub-machine tellegraf under the boundin billers of the Oshun, and then hev it Bust.

Spaldin's Fort is to maik Prepared Gloo, which mends everything. Wonder ef it will mend a sinner's wickid waze. (Impromtoo goak.)

Zoary's Fort is to be a femaile circus feller.

My Fort is the great moral show biznis & ritin choice famerly literatoor for the noospapers. That's what's the matter with me.

&c., &c., &c. So I mite go on to a indefnit extent.

Twict I've endevered to do things which thay wasn't my Fort. The fust time was when I undertuk to lick a owdsshus cuss who cut a hole in my tent & krawld threw. Sez I, "my jentle Sir go out or I shall fall onto you putty hevy." Sez he, "Wade in, Old wax figgers," whareupon I went for him, but he cawt me powerful on the hed & knockt me threw the tent into a cow pastur. He pursood the attack & flung me into a mud pudile. Az I aroze & rung out my drencht garments I koncluded fitin wasn't my Fort. He now rize the kurtin upon Seen 2nd: It is rarely seldum that I seek consolation in the Flowin Bole. But in a sertin town in Injianny in the Faul of 18——, my orgin grinder got sick with the fever & died. I never felt so ashamed in my life, & thowt I'd hist in a few swallows of suthin strengthin.

Konsequents was I histid in so much I dident zackly know whare bowts I was. I turnd my livin wild beests of Pray loose into the screets and spilt all my wax works. I then Bet I coold play hoss. So I hitched myself to a Kanawl bote, there bein two other horses hitcht on also, one behind and anuther ahead of me. The driver hollerd for us to git up, and we did. But the hosses bein onused to sich a arrangemunt begun to kick & squeal and rair up. Konsequents was I was kickt vilently in the stummuck & back, and presuntly I fownd myself in the Kanawl with the other hosses, kickin & yellin like a tribe of Cusscaroorus savvijis. I was rescood, & as I was bein carrid to the tavern on a hen lock Bored I sed in a feeble voise, "Boys, playin hoss isn't my Fort."

MORAL.—Never don't do nothin which isn't your Fort, for ef you do you'll find youself splashin round in the Kanawl, figgeratively speakin.

HIGH-HANDED OUTRAGE AT UTICA.

In the Faul of 1856, I showed my show in Utiky, a trooly grate sitty in the State of New York.

The people gave me a cordyal receptshun. The press was loud in her prases.

1 day as I was givin a descripshun of my Beests and Snaiks in my usual flowry stile what was my skorn & disgust to see a big burly feller walk up to the cage containin my wax figgers of the Lord's Last Supper, and cease Judas Iscarrot by the feet and drag him out on the ground. He then commenced fur to pound hum as hard as he cood.

"What under the son are you abowt?" cried I.

Sez he, "What did you bring this pussylanermus cuss here fur?" & he hit the wax figger another tremenjis blow on the hed.

Sez I, "You egrejus ass, that air's a wax figger—a representashun of the false 'Postle."

Sez he, "That's all very well fur you to say, but I tell you, old man, that Judas Iscarrot can't show hisself in Utiky with impunerty by a darn site!" with which observashun he kaved in Judassis hed. The young man belonged to 1 of the first famerlies in Utiky. I sood him, and the Joory brawt in a verdick of Arson in the 3d degree.

A FRAGMENT.

In one of the showman's letters he describes a visit to his home. His call upon the editor of the local paper is alluded to as follows:

After breakfast I went over to town to see my old friends. The editor of the Bugle greeted me cordyally, and showed me the follerin' article he'd just written about the paper on the other side of the street:

"We have recently put up in our office an entirely new sink, of unique construction—with two holes through which the soiled water may pass to the new bucket underneath. What will the hell hounds of The Advertiser say to this? We shall continue to make improvements as fast as our rapidly increasing business may warrant. Wonder whether a certain editor's wife thinks she can palm off a brass watch chain on this community for a gold one?"

"That," says the Editor, "hits him whar he lives. That will close him up as bad as it did when I wrote an article ridicooling his sister, who's got a cock-eye."

THE NOBLE RED MAN.

The red man of the forest was form'ly a very respectful person. Justice to the noble aboorygine warrants me in sayin' that orrigernerly he was a majestic cuss.

At the time CHRIS. arrove on these shores (I allood to CHRIS. COLUMBUS), the savajis was virtoous and happy. They were innocent of secession, rum, draw poker and sinfulness gin'rally. They didn't discuss the slavery question as a custom. They had no congress, faro banks, delirium tremens or Associated Press. Their habits was consequently good. Late suppers, dyspepsy, gas companies, thieves, ward politicians, pretty waiter girls, and other metropolitan refinements were unknown among them. No savage in good standing would take postage stamps. You couldn't have bo't a coon skin with a barrel of 'em.

The female Aboorygine never died of consumption, because she didn't tie her waist up in whalebone things; but in loose and flowin' garments she bounded, with naked feet, over hills and plains, like the wild and frisky antelope. It was a onlucky moment for us when CHRIS. sot his foot onto these 'ere shores. It would have been better for us of the present day if the injins had given him a warm meal and sent him home ore the ragin' billers. For the savages owned the country, and COLUMBUS was a fillibuster. CORTEZ, PIZARRO and WALKER were one horse fillibusters—COLUMBUS was a four horse team fillibuster, and a large yeller dog under the waggin. I say, in view of the mess we are makin' of things, it would have been better for us if COLUMBUS had staid to home. It would have been better for the show bisniss. The circulation of VANITY FAIR would be larger, and the proprietors would all have boozum pins! Yes, sir, and perhaps a tenpin alley.

By which I don't wish to be understood as intimatin' that the scalpin' wretches who are in the injin bisniss at the present day are of any account, or calculated to make home happy, specially the Sioxes of Minnesoty, who deserve to be murdered in the first degree, and if POPE will only stay in St. Paul and not go near 'em himself, I reckon they will be.

OLONZO WARD.

I have seen a low and skurrilus noat in the paper from a certin purson who signes hisself Olonzo Ward, & sez he is my berruther. I did once hav a berruther of that name, but I do not recugnise him now. To me he is wuss than ded! I took him from collige sum 16 years ago and gave him a good situation as the Bearded Woman in my Show. How did he repay me for this kindness? He basely undertook (one day while in a Backynalian mood on rum & right in sight of the aujience in the tent) to stand upon his hed, whareby he betray'd his sex on account of his boots & his Berd fallin' off his face, thus rooinin' my prospechs in that town & likewise incurrin' the seris displeasure of the Press, which sed boldly I was triflin' with the feelin's of a intelligent public. I know no such man as Olonzo Ward. I do not ever wish his name breathed in my preesents. I do not recognize him. I perfectly disgust him.

ABSOLUTELY PURE

EXCITEMENT IN ROCHESTER.

The Commotion Caused by the Statement of a Physician.

An unusual article from the Rochester, N. Y., Democrat and Chronicle was recently republished in this paper, and was a subject of much comment. That the article caused even more commotion in Rochester, the following from the same paper shows:

Dr. J. B. Henion, who is well known not only in Rochester, but in nearly every part of America, sent an extended article to this paper a few days since, which was duly published, detailing his remarkable experience and rescue from what seemed to be certain death. It would be impossible to enumerate the personal inquiries which have been made at our office as to the validity of the article, but they have been so numerous that further investigation of the subject was deemed necessary.

With this end in view, a representative of this paper called on Dr. Henion at his residence, when the following interview occurred: "That article of yours, doctor, has created quite a whirlwind. Are the statements about the terrible condition you were in, and the way you were rescued, such as you can sustain?"

"Every one of them and many additional ones. I was brought so low by neglecting the first and most simple symptoms. I did not think I was sick. It is true I had frequent headaches; felt tired most of the time; could eat nothing one day and was ravenous the next; felt dull pains and my stomach was out of order, but I did not think it meant anything serious.

"The medical profession has been treating symptoms instead of disease for years, and it is high time it ceased. The symptoms I have just mentioned or any unusual action or irritation of the water channels indicate the approach of kidney disease more than a cough announces the coming of consumption. We do not treat the cough, but try to help the lungs. We should not waste our time trying to relieve the headache, pains about the body or other symptoms, but go directly to the kidneys, the source of most of these ailments."

"This, then, is what you meant when you said that more than one-half the deaths which occur arise from Bright's disease, is it Doctor?"

"Precisely. Thousands of diseases are torturing psople to-day, which in reality are Bright's disease in some of its many forms. It is a Hydra-headed monster, and the slightest symptoms should strike terror to every one who has them. I can look back and recall hundreds of deaths which physicians declared at the time were caused by paralysis, appoplexy, heart disease, pneumonia, malarial fever and other common complaints which I see now were caused by Bright's disease."

"And did all these cases have simple systoms at first?"

"Every one of them, and might have been cured as I was by the timely use of the same remedy. I am getting my eyes thoroughly opened in this matter and think I am helping others to see the facts and their possible danger also."

Mr. Warner, who was visited at his establishment on N. St. Paul street, spoke very earnestly:

"It is true that Bright's disease had increased wonderfully, and we find, by reliable statistics, that from '70 to '80 its growth was over 250 per cent. Look at the prominent men it has carried off, and is taking off every year, for while many are dying apparently of paralysis and apoplexy, they are really victims of kidney disorder, which causes heart disease, paralysis, apoplexy, etc. Nearly every week the papers record the death of some prominent man from this scourge. Recently, however, the increase has been checked and I attribute this to the general use of my remedy."

"Do you think many people are afflicted with it to-day who do not realize it, Mr. Warner?"

"A prominent professor in a New Orleans medical college was lecturing before his class on the subject of Bright's disease. He had various fluids under microscopic analysis and was showing the students what the indications of this terribly malady were. 'And now, gentlemen,' he said, 'as we have seen the unhealthy indications, I will show you how it appears in a state of perfect health,' and he submitted his own fluid to the usual test. As he watched the results his countenance suddenly changed—his color and command both left him and in a trembling voice he said: 'Gentlemen, I have made a painful discovery; I have Bright's disease of the kidneys;' and in less than a year he was dead. The slightest indications of any kidney difficulty should be enough to strike terror to any one."

"You know of Dr. Henion's case?"

"Yes, I have both read and heard of it."

"It is very wonderful is it not?"

"No more so than a great many others that have come to my notice as having been cured by the same means."

"You believe then that Bright's disease can be cured."

"I know it can. I know it from my own and the experience of thousands of prominent persons who were given up to die by both their physicians and friends."

"You speak of your own experience, what was it?"

"A fearful one. I had felt languid and unfitted for business for years. But I did not know what ailed me. When, however, I found it was kidney difficulty I thought there was little hope and so did the doctors. I have since learned that one of the physicians of this city pointed me out to a gentleman on the street one day, saying: 'There goes a man who will dead within a year.' I believe his words would have proved true if I had not fortunately used the remedy now known as Warner's Safe Cure."

"Did you make a chemical analysis of the case of Mr. H. H. Warner some three years ago, Doctor?" was asked Dr. S. A. Lattimore, one of the analysts of the state board of health.

"Yes, sir."

"What did this analysis show you?"

"A serious disease of the kidneys."

"Did you think Mr. Warner could recover?"

"No, sir, I did not think it possible."

"Do you know anything about the remedy which cured him?"

"I have chemically analyzed it and find it pure and harmless."

The standing of Dr. Henion, Mr. Warner and Dr. Lattimore in the community is beyond question, and the statements they make cannot for a moment be doubted. Dr. Henion's experience shows that Bright's disease of the kidneys is one of the most deceptive and dangerous of all diseases, that it is exceedingly common, but that it can be cured if taken in time.

Can any other institution in the world show such a stewardship like this?

All good men—sharp, shrewd business men—Men who love their families and not themselves, insure their lives to make provision for their families and their own more advanced age. The Mutual life issues every desirable form of policy. Its new distribution policy is the most liberal ever offered by any Insurance Co. in the world, and is the most profitable. It will pay investors to look into the 4 per cent. Guarantee Bonds, now being issued by this Company.

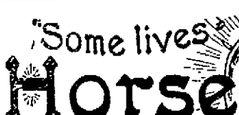
"Some lives are like Horse shoes the more worn the brighter." Busy wives who use SAPOLIO never seem to grow old. Try a cake...



A complete wreck of domestic happiness has often resulted from badly washed dishes, from an unclean kitchen, or from trifles which seemed light as air. But by these things a man often judges of his wife's devotion to her family, and charges her with general neglect when he finds her careless in these particulars. Many a home owes a large part of its thrifty neatness and its consequent happiness to SAPOLIO.

☞ Grocers often substitute cheaper goods for SAPOLIO, to make a better profit. Send back such articles, and insist on having just what you ordered. ☜

A NEW SCHEME

For Settling Claims and Damage Suits Against Railroads---The Local Budget.

The railroads of the United States are on the point of making a most radical departure in a legal way. In brief the plan is to turn over every claim or suit for damages against every road to an association organized for the purpose of settling such cases on their merits or fighting them to the court of last resort.

The proposed association will almost entirely supersede the claim and legal departments of the members of the organization. Railroad officials think the claim feature will be an especially valuable one. Under the present system many prominent shippers compel immediate settlement of claims without the least foundation, threatening a loss of patronage in the event of refusal. Under the new system the claim departments of the railroads will be abandoned and every claim will be referred to the association. The same course will be taken regarding all suits for damages, the association acting as attorney for each member.

General Counsel Keep, of the Northwestern, will resign his present office and accept the chairmanship of the association, the headquarters of which will be in Chicago. The list of members is not ready for publication, as it is the intention to secure the membership of every railroad in America. All the prominent lines have joined and subscribed over $1,100,000 toward contingent expenses. The association already has a name and office in Chicago, but the name will probably be changed when Mr. Keep assumes the presidency.

GOSSIP OF THE DAY.

Jasper Samon, of the Olds Wagon works, is visiting friends at Columbia City to day.

At the Bass works they are now making the castings for the Morgan heater, manufactured at Akron, Ohio.

E. Jamey, Pennsylvania engineer, has sickness in his family which prevents him from taking his run.

H. A. Philley, of Foreman Polhamus' office, has a sick baby. Mr. Philley did not report for duty this morning.

Fred Knapp, formerly of Bluffton, is now a freight conductor on the Lake Shore road, with headquarters at Elkhart.

John McNulty, Frank Tonier and Fred Schultz, moulders in Fred Meyers' department of the Bass foundry, are sick and not working to-day.

The Pennsylvania lines west of Pittsburg, in the month of January, show an increase in passenger earnings of $552,600 over those of January, 1890.

Harry Templar has been promoted from the place of shipping clerk to shop clerk at the electric light works. He has been succeeded by Frank Hough.

J. H. Kerkhof has been appointed superintendent of the car department of the Lake Shore road at their shops in Toledo, vice J. B. Marble, resigned. Mr. Kerkhof goes from Marion, Ind.

The men in all the departments of the Pennsylvania shops are working only eight hours a day now. The order, which is only temporary, went into effect this morning. There appears to be plenty of work in some of the departments, but the strike of the coal miners and coke workers in the east has demoralized the west bound freight business to the extent that the company feels it must reduce its expenses.

Peter Lauer, a machinist in the Bass shops, is sick.

Joseph Oswald, a teamster for the Bass works, is on the sick list.

F. M. Cherry, boiler maker in the Pennsylvania shops, is seriously ill.

This is pay day on the Pittsburg and at the Fort Wayne Furniture company.

The work of building fifty-five refrigerator cars was commenced at the Pennsylvania shops this morning.

Master Mechanic G. L. Potter of the Pennsylvania, went to Chicago yesterday on business for the company.

Henry Burlage, of the American wheel works, leaves for Chicago this evening for a short visit with friends.

P. L. Stevens, foreman of the upholstering department of the Pennsylvania shops, is at work again after a short illness.

The approaching nuptials of J. McGowan is looked to with much interest by his fellow shopmen. Mr. McGowan is off duty to-day.

The Indianapolis Journal says: "The Pennsylvania company contemplates removing its shops located at Crestline, Ohio, to Mansfield, where inducements have been offered which will justify the change. It will be a much more convenient point for the shops."

George Safforn, who works in the moulding room of Jacob Stier at the Bass works, had the flesh and nail stripped off the second finger of his right hand this morning. He went home to dress the wound and will probably not be able to work for some time.

More trains pass over the Pennsylvania road between Pittsburg and Altoona every twenty-four hours than on any division of any railway system in the United States. During the busy season an average of 366 passenger and freight trains pass over this division.

William Gronour, a painter at the Olds Wagon works, is another convert to the negative side of the question "Is marriage a failure." He has a twelve pound boy at his house and feels justly proud of the cherub. Cigars were handed out freely by the new papa this morning.

F. W. Menneweisob, Pennsylvania machinist, reported for work this morning. He has been unfortunate of late. Several weeks ago he received injuries which kept him at home about three weeks, when he returned to work, but was taken sick and again forced to lay idle two weeks longer.

A Pennsylvania official who was in Pittsburg a few days last week says it is understood that James McCrea will be elected first vice-president of the Pennsylvania company, J. E. Davidson second vice-president, T. D. Messler third vice-president, and Joseph Wood, general manager, is to have the title of fourth vice-president and general manager.

"Who, did you says, is to be the next president?" "Oh! I don't known and don't care, I'm not looking for presidents—I'm looking for a bottle of Salvation Oil. It kills pain ever time." 25c.

One of our most estimable citizens may be thankful for the introduction of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, for its timely use has saved his life. For incipient consumption it is a certain remedy. Price 25 cts.

Michael Doyle, aged seventy-eight, of Winchester, fell dead of appoplexy.

CALIFORNIA EXCURSIONS,

Combining Comfort, Economy and Respectability.

The Santa Fe route, realizing the fact that there is a demand for a service to California and the Pacific Coast which will secure to the traveler even a greater degree of comfort than is given on the regular trains, has organized a series of special Santa Fe route excursions on regular dates between Chicago, Kansas City and all California points.

The most successful and satisfactory low rate excursions ever run to California have been over the Santa Fe route, and this company, with its own line from Chicago to California, smooth track and fine equipment will make these excursion smore popular and successful than ever.

The excursions leave Chicago every Thursday at 7:50 p.m. from the Dearborn station of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe railroad, and leave Kansas City every Friday at 10:45 a. m. and 11 a. m. They are personally conducted by salaried excursion agents of the Santa Fe route, who accompany the parties to destination, and give personal attention to the comfort of passengers, especially aged persons, ladies and children without escort.

Pullman Tourist Sleeping Cars are used in these excursions, and run through from Chicago and Kansas City without change to California. These cars are furnished with all necessary articles of comfort and convenience, as described elsewhere herein. A colored porter is assigned to each car, under the direction of the regular Pullman conductor. These arrangements give to the passenger every attention obtainable on first-class transportation.

Parties joining the excursions should write to H. A. Bonn, passenger agent, Rialto building, Chicago, who will give necessary information and assistance to passengers regarding tickets, baggage, location in sleeper, etc. Ticket office 212 Clark street, Chicago, corner of Adams street.

Six Short Rules for Young Christians

1. Never neglect daily private prayer, and when you pray remember that God is present and that He hears your prayers.—Heb. 11.6.

2. Never neglect daily private Bible reading; and when you read remember that God is speaking to you, and that you are to believe and act upon what He says.—John 5:39. [I believe all backsliding begins with the neglect of these two rules.]

3. Never let a day pass without trying to do something for Jesus. Every night reflect on what Jesus has done for you and ask yourself, What am I doing for Jesus?—Mat. 5:13 16.

4. If you are ever in doubt as to a thing being right or wrong, go to your own room and kneel down and ask God's blessing upon it.—Col. 3:17. If you can not do this it is wrong.

5. Never take your Christianity from Cristians or argue that because "such a person does it therefore I may.—Sec. Cor. 10:12. You are to ask yourself How would Christ act in my place? and strive to follow Him.—Jno. 10:27.

6. Never believe what you feel if it contradicts God's word. Ask yourself, "Can what I feel be true if God's word is true?" And if both can not be true believe God. Boim. 3:3 4, Pro. 3:5.

Who have taken Hood's Sarsaparilla what they think of it, and the replies will be positive in its favor. One has been cured of indigestion and dyspepsia, another finds it indispensible for sick headache, others report remarkable cures of scrofula, salt rheum, etc. Truly the best advertising which Hood's Sarsaparilla receives is the hearty endorsement of its army of friends.

AN EMINENT ACTOR.

Robert Mantell at the Masonic Temple Thursday Night.

One of the finest attractions of the season will be that of the "Corsican Brothers," in which Robert Mantell appears at the Masonic Temple, Thursday evening. Mr. Mantell is one of the best actors in the country and he will have a fine audience. His version of "The Corsican Brothers" is the same as Henry Irving presented at the Lyceum theatre, London, a few years ago, and all the stage traps, tricks, visions, vampires, preparations and mechanical effects are modeled after those employed by him. There are twenty-five acting parts in the play, and a large force of auxiliaries are required for a proper presentation.

OHIO AND INDIANA LINE.

The Original Survey was Really not Correct.

The matter of the boundary line between Ohio and Indiana has been the source of some agitation within the territory affected for years, and of late has been the subject of a good many paragraphs in the newspapers.

The story of how the line happened to be surveyed as it now stands is this: In 1787, when Virginia by ordinance ceded the Northwest territory to the United States, and later, when Ohio was erected into a state, it was ordered that the west line of Ohio should commence at the junction of the great Miami and Ohio rivers, and extend thence due north. There were at that time two flourishing Indian trading posts at Richmond and Fort Wayne. These traders, whose occupancy would be gone should they be taken into the new state of Ohio, brought such an influence to bear upon the surveying party that they were persuaded to deflect the line to the east so that when they reached the northern limit they were twelve miles east of the point to which a direct north and south line would have brought them. This triangular strip, which the state of Ohio claims, is equivalent to a strip six miles wide and two hundred miles long, or 1,200 square miles of territory. It was many years before the mistake, or rascality, was discovered, and it is held that the practically undisputed possession by Indiana all these years will serve as a bar against any proceedings to disturb the present boundary line.

Should the new survey be ordered, and the line be located in accordance, Indiana would lose the cities of Richmond, Union City and Decatur, but the line would lack a few miles of cutting out Fort Wayne, as the post traders of a hundred years ago feared.

Governor Hovey is quoted as saying: "There is nothing in the claim—nothing whatever. It is all bosh. From 1816, yes, from 1800, the land in question has been within the borders of Indiana. That is ninety years of possession. And that possession alone, undisturbed as it has been, will be sufficient to settle the question. The dispute that we had with Kentucky about Green River Island was a very different question. We had no right to the island, and the supreme court of the United States decided we had not. But this Ohio boundary story is not worth the paper it is written upon. The land has been occupied and people have been paying taxes in Indiana with no agitation of the question at all. The supreme court of the United States, if the matter ever comes before it, would, in my judgment, be very loth to disturb an occupancy of ninety years."

The incessant rain of forty hours caused the river to rise considerably.

THE LEGISLATURE.

The special committee of lawyers in the house, to whom was referred the fee and salary bill, to report on the constitutional provisions involved, have been at work three days. After considering the matter at length they have arrived at the conclusion that the bill as adopted by the committee of the whole house is of doubtful constitutionality, inasmuch as by it county officers are classified and paid salaries according to this compilation made, and not strictly in accordance with population of counties and services required. The committee will, therefore, report a bill specifying every officer of every county, and the salary he is to receive, and this will be made sufficient. So they intend to pay the salaries of all deputies and not have their number and pay fixed by the county commissioners as the original bill provides. This is practically undoing what has already been done, and the whole matter will have to be gone over again in the house, and will probably take the greater part, if not all, of this week.

The general assembly will adjourn, by constitutional limitation, March 9, and there are but seventeen days in which bills can be passed. The senate is fairly well advanced with its work, but the house is behind. Neither the appropriation nor the apportionment bills have yet been reported—it will take several days more to get through with fees and salaries, and the most important measure of all, the proposed revision of and changes in the tax laws, is yet in the hands of the ways and means committee, who are working hard on it. These three measures will take up a great part of the remaining time. Thus far 580 bills have been introduced in the house and sixty-six passed. Probably one hundred bills in each house have been indefinitely postponed.

The ways and means committee of the house and Senator Howard have been working for days on a very important bill, which revises and amends the entire system of taxation in the state, and it will probably be reported to-morrow. In a general way, it will include Mr. Oppenheim's plan of repealing the state levy of 12 cents, and taking the railroad taxes of counties and paying it into the state treasury, the principal features of Mr. Gallop's corporation tax bill, and Mr. Beeseley's bill for the establishment of a state tax commission. The county boards of equalization are to be abolished, and a county assessor is to be elected who shall supervise the work of the township assessors. It also makes this official, with the auditor and treasurer, a board of review with the same powers and duties as the county board of equalization. It is expected that if this bill should become a law it will receive the appraisement of property at its real value.

In the house Mr. Thiene's bill amending the law regarding liens of mechanics, laborers, etc., was ordered engrossed, as was also Mr. Ebert's bill to secure to laborers the payment of their wages.

The judiciary committee reported against Mr. Patton's bill "to maintain political purity in nominating conventions," etc, as it was called. The author of the bill made a vigorous kick against the report of the committee. He said that the purpose of his bill was to prevent the buying and selling of votes in nominating conventions and primary elections. It required all candidates to make a sworn, itemized account of whatever money they had spent "for beer, cigars," or anything else to get their nominations, or try to get them. The report of the committee recommending its indefinite postponement was concurred in, and Mr. Patton's great reform measure was lost to the world.

The house concurred in the report of the judiciary committee recommending the passage of Mr. Glessner's bill, limiting appeals from justices' courts to cases involving $20 or more, and it was advanced to third reading.

In the senate Mr. Ewing called up his bill authorizing the incorporation and operation of live stock insurance companies which comply with certain conditions. One of these conditions is that they must have a paid up capital stock of $50,000, and they are to be subject to state control, as other insurance companies are. The bill was read a second time, and as it seemed to be meeting with general favor, its author gained courage and boldness and moved to suspend the rules and put the bill upon its passage. This motion prevailed, and the bill was passed with very little opposition.

In the senate Saturday the following bill introduced by Mr. Hayden was passed: Defining the duties of the trustees of the school for the feeble minded; fixing the salary of the superintendent at $1,500; principal, $750; matron, $600. Also: Limiting the privilege of the institution to children of sixteen years and under.

Mr. Morgan, of Allen county, offered an amendment limiting the life of the appellate court to six years, and the amendment was adopted.

To be Robbed of Health

By a pestilential climate, by a vocation entailing constant exposure, physical overwork or sedentary drugery at the desk, is a hard lot. Yet many persons originally possessed of a fair constitution suffer this deprivation before the meridian of life is passed. To any and all subjects to conditions inimical to health, no purer or more agreeable preservative of the greatest of earthly blessings can be recommended than Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which insures the system to climatic change, physical fatigue and exhaustion. It eradicates dyspepsia, the bane of sedentary brain workers, preserves and restores regularity of the bowles and liver, when disordered from any cause, annihilates fever and ague and prevents it, checks the growth of a tendency to rheumatism and gout and neutralizes the danger to be apprehended from causes productive of kidney, bladder and uterine ailments. To be convinced of the truth of these statements, it is only necessary to give this sterling preparation an impartial trial.

The Library of American Literature.

This work is now complete by the publication of the eleventh volume. "The Nation" claims more labor has been expended on it than any work in our language, not excepting Allibone's Dictionary of Authors. Each volume is finely illustrated. The selections are from every author of the least importance between the epoch of the planting of the Jamestown colony and the present day. The actual number of selections are 2,671 and the authors represented 1,207. The biographies and the index at the close constitute the best work of the kind we have ever seen. The New York World says: "The Stedman Library is a wonderful piece of work and will stand for generations as the verdict of the court of last resort regarding the American literature of the past and present." The price of the work ($88) is amazingly low. All the eleven volumes are delivered at one time and a person desiring can make a payment on them of $3 a month, which is less than one cent per volume a day. Any one desiring to see the work, whether intending to purchase or not can do so by addressing a postal card to Mr. DeForest, Aldine hotel.

Remarkable Rescue.

Mrs. Michael Curtain, Plainfield, Ill., makes the statement that she caught cold, which settled on her lungs; she was treated for a month by her family physician, but grew worse. He told her she was a hopeless victim of consumption, and that no medicine could cure her. Her druggist suggested Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. She bought a bottle, and to her delight found herself benefited from first dose. She continued its use, and after taking ten bottles, found herself sound and well, now does her own housework and is as well as she ever was.—Free trial bottles of this Great Discovery at Dreier Bros.' drug store, large bottles 50c. and $1.00.

Happy Hoosiers.

Wm. Timmons, postmaster of Idaville, Ind., writes: "Electric Bitters has done more for me than all other medicines combined, for that bad feeling arising from Kidney and Liver trouble." John Leslie, farmer and stockman, of same place, says: "Find Electric Bitters to be the best Kidney and Liver medicine, made me feel like a new man." J. W. Gardner, hardware merchant, same town, says: "Electric Bitters is just the thing for a man who is all run down and don't care whether he lives or dies." He found new strength, good appetite, and felt just like he had a new lease on life. Only 50c. a bottle at Dreier Bros.' Drug Store.

A FIGHT WITH AXES.

Two Wood Choppers Settle a Dispute in a Bloody Combat—Criminal News.

DEADWOOD, S. D., Feb. 17.—News has just reached this city of a fight with axes between Danes employed chopping wood on Elk Creek, sixteen miles from this city. The two men, between whom there has been bad blood for some time, met Sunday afternoon. The quarrel was quickly renewed and both grabbed axes. Max Selback swung his around quickly, letting the keen edge of his weapon fall on the side of Charles Smith's face. The man's head was cut wide open. He fell and Selback raised three or four blows on his prostrate form, breaking his back and cutting terribly gashes in his side and hips. Despite his frightful wounds Smith is still alive, but he will certainly die. Selback has been arrested.

WHEATFIELD, Ind., Feb. 17.—At Julian, a station on the Chicago and Indianapolis coal railway near here, Sunday night John W. Ullery, ex-sheriff of Newton county, fired five bullets into the body of his brother-in-law, W. Smoot. Both men are reticent as to the origin of the trouble. Smoot probably will die.

PEORIA, Ill., Feb. 17.—John Spellman reached home last night and had a quarrel with his father, who ordered his arrest. While absent searching for the sheriff, young Spellman escaped and is now at liberty. Officers expect to capture him this morning.

WEST SUPERIOR, Wis., Feb. 17.—Alderman A. B. Baxter was arrested yesterday on a warrant charging him with the embezzlement of $2,500. Up to within a short time Mr. Baxter has been manager in this city of the Edwards-McCulloch lumber company, of Stillwater, Minn., who run a branch establishment in this city. At the same time Gustave Paradis, of the same firm, was arrested and both men taken before Judge Steele, who bound them over in the sum of $3,000 each. Bonds were furnished by both men. Baxter has been prominent in local political affairs.

HUNTINGTON, Ind., Feb. 17.—Judge Dailey yesterday overruled the motion for a new trial in the case against Charley Ashley, sentenced to four years for assaulting Judge James B. Kenner and demanding his money on Thanksgiving eve. He will be taken to prison at once.

QUAY EXONERATED.

A Prominent Democrat Comes to His Rescue.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 17.—Samuel Gustine Thompson, president of the Young Men's Democratic association, of Philadelphia, who presided at the Patterson meeting in the Academy of Music in the last campaign, said: "I was counsel for the woman in question. To my knowledge—and I am acquainted with all the facts in this case—Senator Quay never defrauded or attempted to defraud any one of a single penny. Though I am a democrat in politics I made up my mind to make this statement public during the campaign if Senator Quay had seen fit to deny the false allegation and I would have done so if he had sought to vindicate himself."

A Big Libel Suit.

ST. PAUL, Feb. 17.—Senator Ignatius Donnelly yesterday afternoon, through Attorney W. W. Erwin, instituted two suits for libel in $100,000 each against the St. Paul Pioneer Press and ex-Congressman William S. King. These suits grow out of a publication in the Pioneer Press yesterday morning of a column article from Mr. King in which, it is claimed, Mr. Donnelly is repeatedly charged with receiving from $1,000 to $5,000 for his vote and influence at various times in the last twenty years.

WILL CONTINUE BUSINESS.

The American Loan and Trust Company Settles its Trouble.

NEW YORK, Feb. 17.—The Sun says: "A crisis came in the affairs of the American Loan and Trust Co. yesterday. Examiner Cahill had been at work on the books for four days and yesterday he believed that the situation warranted a consultation with Superintendent Preston of the banking department. It turned out that since the publication of the trouble there has been paid out over the counters of the bank $1,200,000, and if this should continue there would be no alternative but to close its doors. Mr. Cahill's examination showed that there had been an impairment of the capital by $364,000, the amount advanced to the Dunsmir, Chesapeake and New Orleans railroad company. It was said that there were other trifling impairments which would bring the amount up to $400,000. Mr. Preston summoned the executive committee of the company and notified that they must make up the difference before this morning or he would stop business. From that time on there was a grand hustle to get the money, which lasted far into the night. George A. Evans, the vice-president, who was responsible for the loans to the Railroad company, made efforts to help his company out of their trouble. The directors besieged their friends for aid. Some called on Mr. Sage last night and he promised to help them out conditionally. Other pledges were secured, the most of them coming, it was said, from John S. Blair, a director. Granville P. Hawes, counsel for the company, announced just before midnight that enough money had been raised to warrant the opening of the doors this morning. Mr. Hawes added that if the pledges were carried out the company would have no difficulty in going on.

WILL FIGHT TO-NIGHT.

Dan Needham and Tom Ryan Will Meet Each Other in the Ring at Minneapolis.

MINNEAPOLIS, Feb. 17.—Patrons of pugilistic events from Illinois, Michigan, Wisconsin and Indiana to a total of over two hundred, came in on this morning's trains from Chicago and struggled through a blinding snow storm to the hotels that are the headquarters of the respective state contingents. On the same trains there were no small number of substantial looking business men and commercial travelers, whom mysterious and pressing business had called to the flourishing city, and who, although at home they would not permit themselves to grace a glove contest, were, nevertheless, soon after their arrival, hustling the secretary of the Twin City Athletic club for the tickets necessary to enable them to witness to-night's encounter between Dannie Needham, late of California, and Tommy Ryan, now of Chicago and formerly of Michigan. Everything in the amphitheatre of the club is in readiness for the mill. The tiers of seats rising from the ring reach almost to the ceiling and will furnish accommodations for $1,500 spectators, and about a third more of that number can be provided with standing room. Ryan, accompanied by Billy Myers, of Streator, trudged five miles and back through the snow this morning. He is in the very pink of condition and is certain to make a gallant fight. Needham is also in excellent form, but there are conflicting rumors regarding the condition of his hands and as a result the betting, which all along has been 100 to 60 in his favor, veered around in some of the resorts at noon to even money. Ryan has hosts of friends and they are well provided with funds to back their prediction. Ryan will make a cautious fight, for he has never yet met a foeman of Needham's standing and the battle therefore promises to be a long one, although some small bets were made this morning that twenty rounds would settle the affair one way or the other. Physically the ex-California lad is all that could be demanded, but unless his hands are in better shape than is reported the blows that he can deliver will not be heavy enough to stop his opponent and the latter, by prolonging the contest, will stand a good chance of beating him. Needham's backers say, however, that they have no fears regarding the outcome and that however terrible a punisher Ryan may be he will get back all that he gives with compound interest. Joe Mannix, a well-known member of the local newspaper fraternity, will be the referee. Betting lagged somewhat at noon, but will be decidedly brisk this afternoon and at the ring side. The men will weight in at 9 o'clock.

THE ANDERSON MYSTERY.

Still Searching for the Missing New Providence Man.

NEW ALBANY, Feb. 17.—The grave discovered in the woods near New Providence last Saturday and supposed to contain the remains of Charles Anderson, was opened yesterday, and it contained nothing, though there was evidence that it at one time held the remains of some person. There was another sensational disclosure in the mysterious case made to-day by a sister-in-law of Gillespie, the accused murderer, and daughter of his father-in-law, Mike Money. Miss Money states that Anderson was murdered by Gillespie and buried in the grave discovered Saturday; that shortly after the murder, Gillespie, fearing that the grave would be found and the remains exhumed, removed the body, and taking it to a remote spot among the hills, built a fire and reduced it to ashes. Her statement was made to Albert Lee and wife, who reside in the neighborhood, and this afternoon the startling information was imparted to a Journal correspondent by Lee.

THE SPANIARDS DEFEATED.

They Attack Natives of the Caroline Islands and Get Whipped.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 17.—A private letter from the Caroline Islands gives an account of further fighting between the natives and Spaniards, in which the latter were worsted. Last November the Spanish government sent an expedition, consisting of three gunboats and one transport, against the village of Motal Lamar. The sailors and troops landed, and after the loss of sixty men, made the natives retreat. The Spaniards were reinforced and six days later attacked the natives. The latter were behind a barricade and were armed with muskets and two small cannon. The Spaniards were badly repulsed, with a loss of 120 men. It is expected that a general uprising of natives will take place, and the governor has dispatched ships to Manilla for troops.

It is thought the St. Louis refinery will resume business when the present duty on raw sugar is taken off, next April. The refinery is one of the largest in the country and has been shut down more than two years. Several hundred hands are employed when it is in full operation It is a member of the American Sugar Refining company.

PORTER'S FUNERAL.

The Brave Naval Commander Laid to His Final Rest in Arlington Cemetery.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—The funeral ceremonies over the remains of Admiral Porter, the highest officer in the American navy at the time of his death, took place this afternoon from his residence in this city.

The event was very impesing, the greatest honors known to naval regulations being paid to the dead hero. The officers of the government, including the President, members of the cabinet, senators and representatives, justices of supreme court, army officers of every rank, vice admirals and numberless naval officers, members of diplomatic corps and men distinguished in letters and science, were present.

It was nearly 3 o'clock when the funeral cortege moved to Arlington, where the remains were interred with the highest naval honors. The funeral procession was composed of more than 5,000 troops, consisting of marines, militia, United States regulars, artillery and cavalry, in charge of Rear Admiral Kimberly.

The pall-bearers were: Vice-President Morton, Senator Manderson, Senator McPherson, Senator Hawley, Governor Pattison, Major General Schofield, Rear Admiral Rodgers, Rear Admiral Howell, Rear Admiral Crosby, Rear Admiral Stevens, Rear Admiral Almy, Rear Admiral Woorden, Rear Admiral Jouette, Rear Admiral Quenesne, General T. Johnston, and Representative D. Boutelle.

The body bearers were eight sailors from the crew of the United States receiving ship Dale, now at the navy yard here. The dead admiral was dressed in the full uniform of his rank, the G. A. R. badge, the decoration of Sons of American Revolution, and the badge of Porter post, of Massachusetts, being upon his breast.

The casket was covered with royal purple velvet, with silver handles and ornaments. Upon a silver tablet on the lid was the inscription, "David D. Porter, admiral United States navy. Born June 18, 1813; died February 13, 1891."

IN THE COURTS.

Business Done Before the Justices and Judges To-day.

David Carr, a stranger who was on his way west, was in the city last night. He was attempting at several places to sell a revolver which he carried, but was unsuccessful in so doing. At one place he frightened a boy by pointing the revolver, which was loaded, at him. Carr was arrested by Officer Lee. At police court this morning he was arraigned on the charge of carrying concealed weapons and fined $5 and costs. He was sent to jail for eleven days.

The appeal case from Mayor Harding's court of Jerry Flood, who was fined for drunkenness, was up in the circuit court to-day.

The case for malicious trespass against Martin Holey was finished in the circuit court and went to the jury at noon.

Justice Tanney is making out a transcript of the Notestine case, which has been appealed to court.

Ph. Blade has brought suit against Charles Brahm, before Justice France, on an account for $25. The case is set for trial on Friday at 10 o'clock. The case of B. D. Angeli for possession of promises against Narcesus Becher, has been set for trial before Justice France on the 23rd at 9 a. m.

Squire France fined Lawrence Hoffman $10 and costs for selling liquor on Sunday; Frank Higby $20 and costs for disobeying subpœna, and fined George Brossard $1 and costs for provoking Officer John Trammel.

Andrew J. Shutt et al. sue Abraham Tanning et al. to quit title to real estate. Morris & Barratt and W. L. Penfield are attorneys.

The case of Robert McKee vs. Timothy T. Kennerk et al., is appealed to the circuit court from Esquire Wilkinson.

Judge Dawson listened to arguments in the Randall-Reinewald injunction case in the circuit court yesterday. He adjourned the superior court later and went to Decatur to hold a brief session for Judge Heller.

The verdict in the Rodehouse murder case at Van Wert does not give satisfaction among the citizens there. The Van Wert Bulletin says in regard to it: "It was generally conceded that he was guilty of murder or he was not guilty. The defense made its fight on the ground of self-defense and it is considered a legal impossibility on such grounds to find a verdict of assault and battery. A verdict of acquittal would have borne with it some dignity and would even have given better satisfaction to the prosecution and to the friends of the dead engineer. As it is the verdict is something of a farce, a verdict such as is found in a justice court when a drunken fight has taken place and one man receives a black eye at the hands of another. The penalty under the verdict is from $1 to $200 while the costs of the case which amount to $3,000 or $4,000 will in the end be borne by the county. The verdict is no doubt the result of a compromise."

GENERAL SHERMAN.

The Old Soldiers of This City Do Honor to the Dead Hero.

Last evening at G. A. R. hall a large number of the veterans of the late war assembled to do honor to the memory of the late Gen. Wm. T. Sherman. A number of the old soldiers present marched with the dead hero on one of the most famous marches in the history of modern war. General Sherman to many was dear and intimate, to others a leader who commanded respect and admiration, personally and as an eminent commander. Comrade James E. Graham called the meeting to order and Comrade Milton M. Thompson was elected chairman and George E. Adams secretary.

On motion of Comrade Dickman, a committee of five comrades was appointed on resolutions. The committee consisted of Comrades George D. Adams, J. B. White, Phil Dickinson, E. B. Smith, H. W. Dickman. The preamble and resolutions drawn up were eulogistic of the late hero's military career. The last clause read:

Be it Resolved, The soldiers of this city be requested to assemble at some suitable place on the day and hour of the funeral and hold suitable memorial services, at which time and place the clergy of our city churches be invited to participate, and that all comrades wear their memorial badges or suitable mourning upon the occasion.

On motion of Comrade Dickinson, a committee on arrangements was appointed consisting of eight old soldiers and three sons of veterans. Also, a request was made that the president of the Business Men's exchange appoint a committee of five to act in conjuction. The following comrades were appointed: M. M. Thompson, James E. Graham, Phil Dickinson, George D. Adams, A. M. Darroch, J. B. White, E. B. Smith, A. Daugherty. Sons of veterans—T. W. Blair, H. D. Miller and H. F. Geller. The committee will meet at the Business Men's exchange rooms Wednesday night at 7:30.

After remarks by comrades Graham, Dickinson, White, Alderman and others on the life and character of General Sherman, it was decided that should the funeral of General Sherman occur on Saturday, the 21st instant that the memorial services be held on that afternoon and that the business houses be asked to close during the hour of service.

OUR RESPONSIBILITY

For What We Believe Concerning God's Eternal Truths.

The theme discussed by Dr. Wells, the evangelist, at the First Presbyterian church last evening was, "Are we responsible to God for what we believe?" The doctor took Webster's definition of believe—credit given to the testimony of others. He said the will has the power to receive or accept this testimony and in so far as we allow or prevent this testimony concerning God's eternal truths entering the mind are we responsible for our belief. The avenues through which this testimony enters the mind are: reason, consciousness, memory and the senses. If men shut these up and refuse to examine God's truths they will be held responsible, and this is what men do with the testimony concerning their soul's eternal welfare. The infidel, the skeptic, the unbeliever, shut their eyes and close their ears to these things. They refuse to examine the evidence. In many instances the infidel and unbeliever do not read the Bible. They have not examined the evidence upon which Christianity rests and the assaults made by them are those which have been exploded years ago by Christian thinkers. If man will examine the Bible they will be convinced of its truths and be led to believe. God has endowed us with the faculties for determining the questions for ourselves and sent His Holy Spirit to aid us and if we refuse to make use of them we are held responsible for believing false doctrines and the logical sequence is that we are also held responsible for the results of this unbelief on our lives. To night Dr. Wells will preach upon the theme, "The Smitten Rock."

MEMORIAL FROM SCOTLAND.

James A. Gavin Receives the Sad Announcement of a Death.

James A. Gavin, janitor-in-chief of the public schools, to-day received a memorial card announcing the death of his aunt, Janet Gavin, which occurred at Millhall, Eagleshan, Scotland, on January 30, 1891. The deceased was eighty-three years old, and was a sister of Mr. Gavin's father, and one of two sisters and two brothers, who lived unmarried in the family homestead at the above place. The broken chain caused by the death of this estimable lady leaves the other three at ages ranging above seventy-five years. The memorial is beautifully embellished in mourning and bears a touching poem on the leaflet, the issuing of which is a common custom in Scotland.

DEMAND AN ANSWER.

A Railroad Committee Sent to Pittsburg to Confer With Officials in Regard to Increased Wages.

Last night No. 8 on the Fort Wayne road carried a delegation of railroad men out of the city, whose destination was Pittsburg, Pa. The party consisted of one or more representatives from the following organizations: Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen, Order of Railroad Conductors, Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen and the Switchmen's Mutual Benefit association, and they were all employes of the Pennsylvania company. They were men with determination written upon every line of their faces, whose object was to call upon General Manager Wood, and in person ask for a definite answer in relation to the demands made for higher pay by the engineers, firemen, conductors, trainmen and switchmen. They will, it is understood, insist upon an answer and telegraph here at once the result of their mission. A special meeting of the members of the organizations mentioned will be held this evening to take proper action over the answer to be given by Manager Wood. In the event of the officials refusing to grant the demands of the men or the failure to compromise the matter, a strike may result.

FREE GRAVEL ROADS.

A Meeting to be Held in the Court House To-Night.

A meeting will be held at the circuit court room this evening to discuss the free gravel road question. The bill which has been prepared by Mr. T. E. Ellison will be considered. Representative farmers living on all the gravel roads running out of the city will be present at the meeting, and changes that may be advisable will be made before the bill is submitted to the legislature for enactment. The matter is an important one and there should be a general attendance on the part of business men and all other citizens.

NOT SO SERIOUS.

There is no Cause for Immediate Alarm in the Bishop's Condition.

Prayers of the congregation were asked in the Cathedral last Sunday for the bishop's recovery. The prelate contracted a cold some ten days ago, which has kept him to his room. Whilst the present inclemency of the weather has a depressing effect upon him and renders his breathing somewhat heavy, there was no occasion for the item so strongly put in a morning paper. Neither the bishop's physicians nor his household have occasion to be so unnecessarily alarmed as the item this morning would indicate.

A Train Burned.

THE legislature has set apart Thursday evening for a hearing on the pending municipal suffrage bill. Addresses will be made by Helen M. Gougar and Mary E. Haggart in the hall of the house of representatives. The ladies will no doubt make strong inroads upon the judgments of our two bachelor legislators, Messrs. Oppenheim and Heuch.

ALLEN W. THURMAN, son of the "Old Roman," is the Napoleon of base ball. His latest honor is his appointment to be chairman of the National board of control. Thurman has some very new ideas of base ball which he will introduce. The other members of the board are John I. Rogers and Mr. Krauthof, of the Western league. These gentlemen control the base ball world this season.

MR. MORGAN'S bill to clear the titles to two sections of Indian lands in Allen county of tax incumbrances against them, was passed in the Indiana senate yesterday, under a suspension of the rules, without objection. Taxes on these lands have accumulated for years and have not been paid because the Indians claimed they were exempt from taxation. The United States supreme court has recently decided that the Indians are right in their position, and that their lands are not taxable, and Mr. Morgan's bill simply wipes out the claim against the property in accordance with this decision.

IN Jeff Davis' memoirs the following letter from a young woman is printed: "Dear Mr. President: I want you to let Jeems O. of company oneth, Fifth South Carolina regiment, come home and get married. Jeems is willin', I is willin', his mammy says she is willin', but Jeems' captain he an't willin'. Now then we are all willin' 'ceptin' Jeems's captain, I think you might let up and let Jeems come. I'll make him go straight back when he done got married and fight just as hard as ever." Mr. Davis wrote on the letter: "Let Jeems go." Jeems went home, married the affectionate correspondent of Mr. Davis, returned to his regiment, and did fight as well as ever.

WITH the death of Sherman the title of general of the army completely disappears from our military system. It has been held by three men only. It was created in 1866 by act of congress and conferred upon Grant. Sherman then succeeded Grant as lieutenant general, and when the latter took his seat as president in March, 1869, the former became general of the army. In 1884 Sherman was put on the retired list with the title which he held to the time of his death. In the active service the office, by provision of law, became vacant and the title extinct, Sheridan being commander of the army with the rank of lieutenant general. In 1888, just before Sheridan's death, the rank of lieutenant general was abolished and that of general revived, with the understanding that Sheridan should be made general and the express provision that the title should continue only during his life. Since that time the head of the army has been a major general.

Shakspeer rote good plase, but he wouldn't hav succeeded as a Washington correspondent of a New York daily paper. He lackt the reksit fancy and imagginashun.

That's so!

Old George Washington's Fort was not to hev eny public man of the present day resemble him to eny alarmin extent. Where bowls can George's ekal be found? I ask, & boldly anser no wharse, or eny whare else.

Old man Townsin's Fort was to mark Sassyperiller. "Goy to the world! another life saived!" (Cotaahun from Townsin's advertisement.)

Cyrus Field's Fort is to lay a sub-machine telegraf under the boundin billers of the Oshun, and then hev it Bust.

Spaldin's Fort is to mark Prepared Gloo, which mends everything. Wonder of it will mend a sinner's wickid wase. (Impromtoo goak.)

Zoary's Fort is to be a femaile circus feller.

My Fort is the great moral show biznise & ritin choice famerly literatoor for the noospapers. That's what's the matter with me.

&c., &c., &c. So I mite go on to a indefnit extent.

Twice I've endevered to do things which they wasn't my Fort. The fust time was when I undertuk to lick a cowdashus cuss who cut a hole in my tent & krawld threw. Sez I, "my jentle Sir go out or I shall fall onto you pritty hevy." Sez he, "Wade in, Old wax figgers," whareupon I went for him, but he cawt me powerful on the hed & knockt me threw the tent into a cow pastur. He pursoed the attack & flung me into a mud puddle. Az I across & rung out my drencht garments I koncluded ffin wasn't my Fort. He now rise the kurtis upon Sean 2nd: It is rarely seldum that I seek consolation in the Flowin Bole. But in a sertin town in Injianny in the Fall of 18——, my orgin grinder got sick with the fever & died. I never felt so ashamed in my life, & thowt I'd hist in a few swallows of suthin strengthin.

Konsequents was I histid in so much I dident zackly know whare bowts I was. I turnd my livin wild beests of Pray loose into the streets and split all my wax works. I then Bet I could play hoss. So I hitched myself to a Kanawl bote, there bein two other horses kitcht on also, one behind and aanther ahead of me. The driver hollerd for us to git up, and we did. But the hosses bein used to sich a arrangesmunt begun to kick & squeal and rair up. Konsequents was I was kickt vilently in the stummuck & back, and presently I fownd myself in the Kanawl with the other hosses, kickin & yellin like a tribe of Cassacarcorus savijis. I was rescood, & as I was bein carrid to the tavern on a hen lock Bored I sed in a feeble voise, "Boys, playin hoss isn't my Fort."

MORAL.—Never don't do nothin which isn't your Fort, for ef you do you'll find yourself splashin round in the Kanawl, figgeratively speakin.

HIGH-HANDED OUTRAGE AT UTICA.

In the Faul of 1856, I showed my show in Utiky, a truely grate sitty in the State of New York.

The people gave me a cordyal receptshun. The press was loud in her prases.

I day as I was givin a descriptshun of my Beests and Snaiks in my usual flowry stile what was my skorn & disgust to see a big burly feller walk up to the cage containin my wax figgers of the Lord's Last Supper, and cease Judas Iscarrot by the feet and drag him out on the ground. He than commenced fur to pound him as hard as he cood.

"What under the son are you about?" cried I.

Sez he, "What did you bring this pussylanemus cuss here fur?" & he hit the wax figger another tremenjis blow on the hed.

Sez I, "You egregius ass, that air's a wax figger—a representashun of the false 'Postle."

Sez he, "That's all very well fur you to say, but I tell you, old man, that Judas Iscarrot can't show hisself in Utiky with impunerty by a darn site!" with which observashun he kaved in Judassis hed. The young man belonged to 1 of the first famerlies in Utiky. "I sood him, and the Joory brawt in a verdick of Arson in the 3d degree.

A FRAGMENT.

In one of the showman's letters he describes a visit to his home. His call upon the editor of the local paper is alluded to as follows:

After breakfast I went over to town to see my old friends. The editor of the Bugle greeted me cordyally, and showed me the follerin' article he'd just written about the paper on the other side of the street:

"We have recently put up in our office an entirely new sink, of unique construction—with two holes through which the soiled water may pass to the new bucket underneath. What will the hell hounds of The Advertiser say to this? We shall continue to make improvements as fast as our rapidly increasing business may warrant. Wonder whether a certain editor's wife thinks she can palm off a brass watch chain on this community for a gold one?"

"That," says the Editor, "hits him whar he lives. That will close him up as bad as it did when I wrote an article ridiculing his sister, who's got a cock-eye."

THE NOBLE RED MAN.

The red man of the forest was formily a very respectful person. Justice to the noble abourygine warrants me in sayin' that orrigenerly he was a majestic cuss.

At the time CHRIS. arrove on these shores (I allood to CHRIS. COLUMBUS), the savajis was virtuous and happy. They were innocent of secession, rum, draw poker and sinfulness gin'rally. They didn't discuss the slavery question as a custom. They had no congress, faro banks, delirium tremens or Associated Press. Their habits was consequently good. Late suppers, dyspepsy, gas companies, thieves, ward politicians, pretty waiter girls, and other metropolitan refinements were unknown among them. No savage in good standing would take postage stamps. You couldn't have bo't a scon skin with a barrel of 'em.

The female Aborcygine never died of consumption, because she didn't tie her waist up in whalebone things; but in loose and flowin' garments she bounded, with naked feet, over hills and plains, like the wild and frisky antelope. It was a comlucky moment for us when CHRIS. not his foot onto these 'ere shores. It would have been better for us of the present day if the injins had given him a warm meal and sent him home ore the ragin' billers. For the savages owned the country, and COLUMBUS was a fillibuster. CORTEZ, PIZARRO and WALKER were one horse fillibusters—COLUMBUS was a four horse team fillibuster, and a large yeller dog under the waggin. I say, in view of the mess we are makin' of things, it would have been better for us if COLUMBUS had staid to home. It would have been better for the show biznise. The circulation of VANITY FAIR would be larger, and the proprietors would all have bozum pins! Yes, sir, and perhaps a tenpin alley.

By which I don't wish to be undorstood as intimatin' that the scalpin' wretches who are in the injin biznise at the present day are of any account, or calculated to make home happy, specially the Sioxes of Minnesoky, who deserve to be murdered in the first degree, and if Forx will only stay in St. Paul and not go near 'em himself, I reckon they will be.

OLONZO WARD.

I have seen a low and skurrilus note in the paper from a certin purson who signes hisself Olonzo Ward, & see he is my berruther. I did once hav a berruther of that name, but I do not recognise him now. To me he is wuss than ded! I took him from collige sum 18 years ago and gave him a good situation as the Bearded Woman in my Show. How did he repay me for this kindness? He basely undertook (one day while in a Rackynalian mood on rum & right in sight of the anjience in the tent) to stand upon his hed, whareby he betrayd his sex on account of his boots & his Berd fallin' off his face, thus rocinin' my prospecks in that town & likewise incurrin' the seris displeasure of the Press, which sed boldly I was triflin' with the feelin's of a intelligent public. I know no such man as Olonzo Ward. I do not ever wish his name breathed in my presents. I do not recognize him. I perfectly disgust him.

EXCITEMENT IN ROCHESTER.

The Commotion Caused by the Statement of a Physician.

An unusual article from the Rochester, N. Y., Democrat and Chronicle was recently republished in this paper, and was a subject of much comment. That the article caused even more commotion in Rochester, the following from the same paper shows:

Dr. J. B. Henion, who is well known not only in Rochester, but in nearly every part of America, sent an extended article to this paper a few days since, which was duly published, detailing his remarkable experience and rescue from what seemed to be certain death. It would be impossible to enumerate the personal inquiries which have been made at our office as to the validity of the article, but they have been so numerous that further investigation of the subject was deemed necessary.

With this end in view, a representative of this paper called on Dr. Henion at his residence, when the following interview occurred: "That article of yours, doctor, has created quite a whirlwind. Are the statements about the terrible condition you were in, and the way you were rescued, such as you can sustain?"

"Every one of them and many additional ones. I was brought so low by neglecting the first and most simple symptoms. I did not think I was sick. It is true I had frequent headaches; felt tired most of the time; could eat nothing one day and was ravenous the next; felt dull pains and my stomach was out of order, but I did not think it meant anything serious.

"The medical profession has been treating symptoms instead of disease for years, and it is high time it ceased. The symptoms I have just mentioned or any unusual action or irritation of the water channels indicate the approach of kidney disease more than a cough announces the coming of consumption. We do not treat the cough, but try to help the lungs. We should not waste our time trying to relieve the headache, pains about the body or other symptoms, but go directly to the kidneys, the source of most of these ailments."

"This, then, is what you meant when you said that more than one-half the deaths which occur arise from Bright's disease, is it Doctor?"

"Precisely. Thousands of diseases are torturing people to-day, which in reality are Bright's disease in some of its many forms. It is a Hydra-headed monster, and the slightest symptoms should strike terror to every one who has them. I can look back and recall hundreds of deaths which physicians declared at the time were caused by paralysis, appoplexy, heart disease, pneumonia, malarial fever and other common complaints which I see now were caused by Bright's disease."

"And did all these cases have simple systems at first?"

"Every one of them, and might have been cured as I was by the timely use of the same remedy. I am getting my eyes thoroughly opened in this matter and think I am helping others to see the facts and their possible danger also."

Mr. Warner, who was visited at his establishment on N. 16th. Paul street, spoke very earnestly:

"It is true that Bright's disease had increased wonderfully, and we find, by reliable statistics, that from '70 to '80 its growth was over 250 per cent. Look at the prominent men it has carried off, and is taking off every year, for while many are dying apparently of paralysis and apoplexy, they are really victims of kidney disorder, which causes heart disease, pr ralysis, apoplexy, etc. Nearly every week the papers record the death of some prominent man from this scourge. Recently, however, the increase has been checked and I attribute this to the general use of my remedy."

"Do you think many people are afflicted with it to-day who do not realize it, Mr. Warner?"

"A prominent professor in a New Orleans medical college was lecturing before his class on the subject of Bright's disease. He had various fluids under microscopic analysis and was showing the students what the indications of this terrible malady were. 'And now, gentlemen,' he said, 'as we have seen the unhealthy indications, I will show you how it appears in a state of perfect health,' and he submitted his own fluid to the usual test. As he watched the results his countenance suddenly changed—his color and command both left him and in a trembling voice he said: 'Gentlemen, I have made a painful discovery; I have Bright's disease of the kidneys;' and in less than a year he was dead. The slightest indications of any kidney difficulty should be enough to strike terror to any one."

"You know of Dr. Henion's case?"

"Yes, I have both read and heard of it."

"It is very wonderful is it not?"

"No more so than a great many others that have come to my notice as having been cured by the same means."

"You believe then that Bright's disease can be cured."

"I know it can. I know it from my own and the experience of thousands of prominent persons who were given up to die by both their physicians and friends."

"You speak of your own experience, what was it?"

"A fearful one. I had felt languid and unfitted for business for years. But I did not know what ailed me. When, however, I found it was kidney difficulty I thought there was little hope and so did the doctors. I have since learned that one of the physicians of this city pointed me out to a gentleman on the street one day, saying: 'There goes a man who will dead within a year.' I believe his words would have proved true if I had not fortunately used the remedy now known as WARNER'S Safe Cure."

"Did you make a chemical analysis of the case of Mr. H. H. Warner some three years ago, Doctor?" was asked Dr. S. A. Lattimore, one of the analysts of the state board of health.

"Yes, sir."

"What did this analysis show you?"

"A serious disease of the kidneys."

"Did you think Mr. Warner could recover?"

"No, sir, I did not think it possible."

"Do you know anything about the remedy which cured him?"

"I have chemically analyzed it and find it pure and harmless."

The standing of Dr. Henion, Mr. Warner and Dr. Lattimore in the community is beyond question, and the statements they make cannot for a moment be doubted. Dr. Henion's experience shows that Bright's disease of the kidneys is one of the most deceptive and dangerous of all diseases, that it is exceedingly common, but that it can be cured if taken in time.

TEXAS FARM LANDS

At present valuation will make one rich during the next ten years. The most conservative admit the truth of this assertion.

It is now known that the finest wheat land in the world and suitable for all small grains and fruits and in many instances cotton as well.

In North and West Texas

Texas farmers have an enormous home market as well as

Twelve Thousand Miles of Railroad and Ocean Outlet for their surplus crop. Here farmers are able to work out of doors every day in the year, and stock run on grass from January to January. Farmers in Kansas and in the northwest are selling whatever really they have in their farms, losing the chief item of values. And in many instances clearing the price of the land from their first years crops. The latest census shows that few farmers in Texas have their farms mortgaged. The Texas school fund is the largest of any common wealth in the world, aggregating in cash and lands nearly sixty millions of dollars. State taxes are ten cents on the hundred dollars.

We simply act as Agents in the Sale of Land

Consequently give the same attention to the interest of the buyer or investor as to the seller. We have now for salegood agricultural lands for from three to ten dollars per acre, according to location. These lands will double in value in three years. A complete wreck of domestic happiness has often resulted from badly washed dishes, from an unclean kitchen, or from trifles which seemed light as air. A NEW SCHEME

For Settling Claims and Damage Suits Against Railroads—The Local Budget.

The railroads of the United States are on the point of making a most radical departure in a legal way. In brief the plan is to turn over every claim or suit for damages against every road to an association organized for the purpose of settling such cases on their merits or fighting them to the court of last resort.

The proposed association will almost entirely supersede the claim and legal departments of the members of the organization. Railroad officials think the claim feature will be an especially valuable one. Under the present system many prominent shippers compel immediate settlement of claims without the least foundation, threatening a loss of patronage in the event of refusal. Under the new system the claim departments of the railroads will be abandoned and every claim will be referred to the association for adjustment. The same course will be taken regarding all suits for damages, the association acting as attorney for each member.

General Counsel Keep, of the Northwestern, will resign his present office and accept the chairmanship of the association, the headquarters of which will be in Chicago. The list of members is not ready for publication, as it is the intention to secure the membership of every railroad in America. All the prominent lines have joined and subscribed over $1,100,000 toward contingent expenses. The association already has a name and office in Chicago, but the name will probably be changed when Mr. Keep assumes the presidency.

GOSSIP OF THE DAY.

Jasper Sasson, of the Olds Wagon works, is visiting friends at Columbia City to day.

At the Bass works they are now making the castings for the Morgan hooker, manufactured at Akron, Ohio.

E. Jassy, Pennsylvania engineer, has sickness in his family which prevents him from taking his run.

H. A. Phillay, of Foreman Pulhamus' office, has a sick baby. Mr. Phillay did not report for duty this morning.

Fred Knapp, formerly of Bluffton, is now a freight conductor on the Lake Shore road, with headquarters at Elkhart.

John McNulty, Frank Tonier and Fred Schultz, moulders in Fred Meyers' department of the Bass foundry, are sick and not working to-day.

The Pennsylvania lines west of Pittsburg, in the month of January, show an increase in passenger earnings of $563,600 over those of January, 1890.

Harry Templar has been promoted from the place of shipping clerk to shop clerk at the electric light works. He has been succeeded by Frank Hough.

J. H. Kerkhof has been appointed superintendent of the car department of the Lake Shore road at their shops in Toledo, vice J. B. Marble, resigned. Mr. Kerkhof goes from Marion, Ind.

The men in all the departments of the Pennsylvania shops are working only eight hours a day now. The order, which is only temporary, went into effect this morning. There appears to be plenty of work in some of the departments, but the strike of the coal miners and coke workers in the east has demoralized the west bound freight business to the extent that the company feels it must reduce its expenses.

Peter Lauer, a machinist in the Bass shops, is sick.

Joseph Oswald, a teamster for the Bass works, is on the sick list.

F. M. Cherry, boiler maker in the Pennsylvania shops, is seriously ill.

This is pay day on the Pittsburg and at the Fort Wayne Furniture company.

The work of building fifty-five refrigerator cars was commenced at the Pennsylvania shops this morning.

Master Mechanic G. L. Potter of the Pennsylvania, went to Chicago yesterday on business for the company.

Henry Burlage, of the American wheel works, leaves for Chicago this evening for a short visit with friends.

P. L. Stevens, foreman of the upholstering department of the Pennsylvania shops, is at work again after a short illness.

The approaching nuptials of J. McGowan is looked to with much interest by his fellow shopmen. Mr. McGowan is off duty to-day.

The Indianapolis Journal says: "The Pennsylvania company contemplates removing its shops located at Crestline, Ohio, to Mansfield, where inducements have been offered which will justify the change. It will be a much more convenient point for the shops."

George Safford, who works in the moulding room of Jacob Stier at the Bass works, had the flesh and nail stripped off the second finger of his right hand this morning. He went home to dress the wound and will probably not be able to work for some time.

More trains pass over the Pennsylvania road between Pittsburg and Altoona every twenty-four hours than on any division of any railway system in the United States. During the busy season an average of 256 passenger and freight trains pass over this division.

William Gronour, a painter at the Olds Wagon works, is another convert to the negative side of the question "Is marriage a failure." He has a twelve pound boy at his house and feels justly proud of the cherub. Cigars were handed out freely by the new papa this morning.

F. W. Mennowetsch, Pennsylvania machinist, reported for work this morning. He has been unfortunate of late. Several weeks ago he received injuries which kept him at home about three weeks, when he returned to work, but was taken sick and again forced to lay idle two weeks longer.

A Pennsylvania official who was in Pittsburg a few days last week says it is understood that James McCrea will be elected first vice-president of the Pennsylvania company, J. B. Davidson second vice-president, T. D. Messler third vice-president, and Joseph Wood, general manager, is to have the title of fourth vice-president and general manager.

"Who, did you says, is to be the next president?" "Oh! I don't known and don't care. I'm not looking for presidents—I'm looking for a bottle of Salvation Oil. It kills pain over time." 25c.

CALIFORNIA EXCURSIONS,

Combining Comfort, Economy and Respectability.

The Santa Fe route, realizing the fact that there is a demand for a service to California and the Pacific Coast which will secure to the traveler even a greater degree of comfort than is given on the regular trains, has organized a series of special Santa Fe route excursions on regular dates between Chicago, Kansas City and all California points.

The most successful and satisfactory low rate excursions ever run to California have been over the Santa Fe route, and this company, with its own line from Chicago to California, smooth track and fine equipment will make these excursion more popular and successful than ever.

The excursions leave Chicago every Thursday at 7.50 p.m. from the Dearborn station of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe railroad, and leave Kansas City every Friday at 10.45 a. m. and 11 a. m. They are personally conducted by salaried excursion agents of the Santa Fe route, who accompany the parties to destination, and give personal attention to the comfort of passengers, especially aged persons, ladies and children without escort.

Pullman Tourist Sleeping Cars are used in these excursions, and run through from Chicago and Kansas City without change to California. These cars are furnished with all necessary articles of comfort and convenience, as described elsewhere herein. A colored porter is assigned to each car, under the direction of the regular Pullman conductor. These arrangements give to the passenger every attention obtainable on first-class transportation.

Parties joining the excursions should write to H. A. Boan, passenger agent, Rialto building, Chicago, who will give necessary information and assistance to passengers regarding tickets, baggage, location in sleeper, etc. Ticket office 212 Clark street, Chicago, corner of Adams street.

Six Short Rules for Young Christians

1. Never neglect daily private prayer, and when you pray remember that God is present and that He hears your prayers.—Heb. 11:6.

2. Never neglect daily private Bible reading; and when you read remember that God is speaking to you, and that you are to believe and act upon what He says.—John 5:39. [I believe all backsliding begins with the neglect of these two rules.]

3. Never let a day pass without trying to do something for Jesus. Every night reflect on what Jesus has done for you and ask yourself, What am I doing for Jesus?—Mat. 5:13 16.

4. If you are ever in doubt as to a thing being right or wrong, go to your own room and kneel down and ask God's blessing upon it.—Col. 3:17. If you can not do this it is wrong.

5. Never take your Christianity from Christians or argue that because "such a person does it therefore I may.—Sec. Cor. 10:12. You are to ask yourself How would Christ act in my place! and strive to follow Him.—Jno. 10:27.

6. Never believe what you feel if it contradicts God's word. Ask yourself, "Can what I feel be true if God's word is true?" And if both can not be true believe God. Rom. 3:3 4, Pro. 3:5.

Cut this out and put it in your Bible.

Ask Your Friends

Who have taken Hood's Sarsaparilla what they think of it, and the replies will be positive in its favor. One has been cured of indigestion and dyspepsia, another finds it indispensible for sick headache, others report remarkable cures of scrofula, salt rheum, etc. Truly the best advertising which Hood's Sarsaparilla receives is the hearty endorsement of its army of friends.

Bluffton, Wells Co., Ind., March, 1888. I was 51 years old when I had the first attack of failing sickness—as many as three a week and sometimes daily. Since I took Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic the attacks disappeared, and after the second bottle was taken, a year ago, I am entirely cured, although I had the disease for 11 years. Am now 64 years of age, and am glad to be well again, and recommend the remedy to all being similarly afflicted. SUSANA BERWEILER.

UNLIKE TEA & COFFEE--GOOD FOR THE NERVES.

The claims of cocoa as a useful article of diet are steadily winning recognition. Unlike tea and coffee, it is not only a stimulant but a nourisher; and it has the great advantage of leaving no narcotic effects. Hence it is adapted to general use. The strong may take it with pleasure, and the weak with impunity.

VAN HOUTEN'S COCOA "BEST & GOES FARTHEST."

VAN HOUTEN'S Cocoa ("once tried, always used") leaves no injurious effects on the nervous system. It is no wonder, therefore, that in all parts of the world, this favorite Cocoa is recommended by medical men instead of tea and coffee or other cocoas or chocolates for daily use by children or adults, hale and sick, rich and poor. "Largest sale in the world." Ask for VAN HOUTEN'S and accept no other. 25

OHIO AND INDIANA LINE.

The Original Survey was Really not Correct.

The matter of the boundary line between Ohio and Indiana has been the source of some agitation within the territory affected for years, and of late has been the subject of a good many paragraphs in the newspapers.

The story of how the line happened to be surveyed as it now stands is this: In 1787, when Virginia by ordinance ceded the Northwest territory to the United States, and later, when Ohio was erected into a state, it was ordered that the west line of Ohio should commence at the junction of the great Miami and Ohio rivers, and extend thence due north. There were at that time two flourishing Indian trading postsat Richmond and Fort Wayne. These traders, whose occupancy would be gone should they be taken into the new state of Ohio, brought such an influence to bear upon the surveying party that they were persuaded to deflect the line to the east so that when they reached the northern limit they were twelve miles east of the point to which a direct north and south line would have brought them. This triangular strip, which the state of Ohio claims, is equivalent to a strip six miles wide and two hundred miles long, or 1,200 square miles of territory. It was many years before the mistake, or rascality, was discovered, and it is held that the practically undisputed possession by Indiana all these years will serve as a bar against any proceedings to disturb the present boundary line.

Should the new survey be ordered, and the line be located in accordance, Indiana would lose the cities of Richmond, Union City and Decatur, but the line would lack a few miles of cutting out Fort Wayne, as the post traders of a hundred years ago feared.

Governor Hovey is quoted as saying: "There is nothing in the claim—nothing whatever. It is all bosh. From 1816, yes, from 1800, the land in question has been within the borders of Indiana. That is ninety years of possession. And that possession alone, undisturbed as it has been, will be sufficient to settle the question. The dispute that we had with Kentucky about Green River Island was a very different question. We had no right to the island, and the supreme court of the United States decided we had not. But this Ohio boundary story is not worth the paper it is written upon. The land has been occupied and people have been paying taxes in Indiana with no agitation of the question at all. The supreme court of the United States, if the matter ever comes before it, would, in my judgment, be very loth to disturb an occupancy of ninety years."

The incessant rain of forty hours caused the river to rise considerably.

THE LEGISLATURE.

The special committee of lawyers in the house, to whom was referred the fee and salary bill, to report on the constitutional provisions involved, have been at work three days. After considering the matter at length they have arrived at the conclusion that the bill as adopted by the committee of the whole house is of doubtful constitutionality, inasmuch as by it county officers are classified and paid salaries according to this compilation made, and not strictly in accordance with population of counties and services required. The committee will, therefore, report a bill specifying every officer of every county, and the salary he is to receive, and this will be made sufficient. So they intend to pay the salaries of all deputies and not have their number and pay fixed by the county commissioners as the original bill provides. This is practically undoing what has already been done, and the whole matter will have to be gone over again in the house, and will probably take the greater part, if not all, of this week.

The general assembly will adjourn, by constitutional limitation, March 9, and there are but seventeen days in which bills can be passed. The senate is fairly well advanced with its work, but the house is behind. Neither the appropriation nor the apportionment bills have yet been reported—it will take several days more to get through with fees and salaries, and the most important measure of all, the proposed revision of and changes in the tax laws, is yet in the hands of the ways and means committee, who are working hard on it. These three measures will take up a great part of the remaining time. Thus far 580 bills have been introduced in the house and sixty-six passed. Probably one hundred bills in each house have been indefinitely postponed.

The ways and means committee of the house and Senator Howard have been working for days on a very important bill, which revises and amends the entire system of taxation in the state, and it will probably be reported to-morrow. In a general way, it will include Mr. Oppenheim's plan of repealing the state levy of 12 cents, and taking the railroad taxes of counties and paying it into the state treasury, the principal features of Mr. Cullop's corporation tax bill, and Mr. Hemsley's bill for the establishment of a state tax commission. The county boards of equalization are to be abolished, and a county assessor is to be elected who shall supervise the work of the township assessors. It also makes this official, with the auditor and treasurer, a board of review with the same powers and duties as the county board of equalization. It is expected that if this bill should become a law it will receive the appraisement of property at its real value.

In the house Mr. Thieme's bill amending the law regarding liens of mechanics, laborers, etc., was ordered engrossed, as was also Mr. Ebert's bill to secure to laborers the payment of their wages.

The judiciary committee reported against Mr. Patton's bill "to maintain political purity in nominating conventions," etc., as it was called. The author of the bill made a vigorous kick against the report of the committee. He said that the purpose of his bill was to prevent the buying and selling of votes in nominating conventions and primary elections. It required all candidates to make a sworn, itemized account of whatever money they had spent "for beer, cigars," or anything else to get their nominations, or try to get them. The report of the committee recommending its indefinite postponement was concurred in, and Mr. Patton's great reform measure was lost to the world.

The house concurred in the report of the judiciary committee recommending the passage of Mr. Glessner's bill, limiting appeals from justices' courts to cases involving $20 or more, and it was advanced to third reading.

In the senate Mr. Ewing called up his bill authorizing the incorporation and operation of live stock insurance companies which comply with certain conditions. One of these conditions is that they must have a paid up capital stock of $50,000, and they are to be subject to state control, as other insurance companies are. The bill was read a second time, and as it seemed to be meeting with general favor, its author gained courage and boldness and moved to suspend the rules and put the bill upon its passage. This motion prevailed, and the bill was passed with very little opposition.

In the senate Saturday the following bill introduced by Mr. Hayden was passed: Defining the duties of the trustees of the school for the feeble minded; fixing the salary of the superintendent at $1,500; principal, $750; matron, $600. Also: Limiting the privilege of the institution to children of sixteen years and under.

Mr. Morgan, of Allen county, offered an amendment limiting the life of the appellate court to six years, and the amendment was adopted.

To be Robbed of Health

By a pestilential climate, by a vocation entailing constant exposure, physical overwork or exhaustion, or by the seeds of hereditary ailments can be rooted out by Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which fences the system to climatic change, physical fatigue and exhaustion. It eradicates dyspepsia, the bane of sedentary brain workers, preserves and restores regularity of the bowels and liver, when the former are from any cause disordered, and ague and prevents it, checks the growth of a tendency to rheumatism and gout and neutralizes the danger to be apprehended from causes productive of kidney, bladder and uterine ailments. Be convinced of the truth of these statements. It is only necessary to give this sterling preparation an impartial trial.

The Library of American Literature.

This work is now complete by the publication of the eleventh volume. "The Nation" claims more labor has been expended on it than any work in our language, not excepting Allibone's Dictionary of Authors. Each volume is finely illustrated. The selections are from every author of the least importance between the epoch of the planting of the Jamestown colony and the present day. The actual number of selections are 2,671 and the authors represented 1,207. The biographies and the index at the close constitute the best work of the kind we have ever seen. The New York World says: "The Stedman Library is a wonderful piece of work and will stand for generations as the verdict of the court of last resort regarding the American literature of the past and present." The price of the work ($36) is amazingly low. All the eleven volumes are delivered at one time and a person desiring can make a payment on them of $3 a month, which is less than one cent per volume a day. Any one desiring to see the work, whether intending to purchase or not can do so by addressing a postal card to Mr. DeForest, Aldine hotel.

Remarkable Rescue.

Mrs. Michael Curtain, Plainfield, Ill., makes the statement that she caught cold, which settled on her lungs; she was treated for a month by her family physician, but grew worse. She told her she was a hopeless victim of consumption, and that no medicine could cure her. Her daughter suggested Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. She bought a bottle, and to her delight found herself benefited from first dose. She continued its use, and after taking ten bottles, found herself sound and well, now does her own housework and is as well as she ever was.—Free trial bottles of this Great Discovery at Dreier Bros.' drug store, large bottles 50c. and $1.00.

Happy Hoosiers.

Wm. Timmons, postmaster of Idaville, Ind., writes: "Electric Bitters has done more for me than all other medicines combined, for that bad feeling arising from Kidney and Liver trouble." John Leslie, farmer and stockman, of same place, says: "Find Electric Bitters to be the best Kidney and Liver medicine, made me feel like a new man." J. W. Gardner, hardware merchant, same town, says: "Electric Bitters is just the thing for a man who is all run down and don't care whether he lives or dies." He found new strength, good appetite, and felt just like he had a new lease on life. Only 50c. a bottle at Dreier Bros.' Drug Store.
